Today's Pattern

4399
PERT, YOUNG BASQUE
STYLE
PATTERN 4399

by Anne Adams

Hurry—there's just time before Easter to stitch up this beguiling young heart-breaker! Anne Adams' easy-to-make Pattern 4399 is in basque style—so appealingly feminine—and would look gay in flowery print. The low pointed front waist seam gives you a new "Lager" waisted look, and gathers in the center skirt below are very much in vogue. You'll love the panel down the front of the bodice, with soft, decorative gathers at either side. Take your choice of a higher curved neckline or a very young square shape. And if you want to dress up the sleeves, shirr them prettily on the outside. Perky bows added to the square-neck style give extra charm.

Pattern 4399 is available in junior miss sizes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. Size 13 takes 2 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

MERCHANTS LUNCH 35c

Includes soup, bread, butter, vegetable. Choice of meat, drink and dessert (ice cream or home made pie.)

MR. AND MRS. WIARD ENTERTAIN BASKETBALL TEAM AT LARGE BANQUET

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wiard, hosts of Earl Wiard, entertained the Roseburg senior high school basketball squad at a very delightful turkey banquet at the Silver Nook Grill last evening.

The evening was festooned with orange and black streamers (R. H. S. colors), while the wall lights carried out the same colors with basketballs placed over each light.

The table was decorated with large orange and black R's fastened to a miniature basketball player shooting a basketball, on which the names of the guests were written. In the center of the table was a large two-tier cake decorated in the school colors and topped by a basketball setting on a chocolate square with four miniature Indian chiefs at the four corners of the cake. The attractive placecards were made by the host and hostess daughter, Mrs. June Wiard Call. In one corner of the room was a large wooden boat of an Indian chief in full regalia with a placard in front naming it as "Chief Win-Leg-Go-Go-to-Salem-Watts."

Covers were placed for Dr. G. C. Finlay, Marshall Penner, Homer Grow, Maynard Bell, Gene Powell and Coach J. K. Watts, guests, and the following players, Jim Finlay, Earl Wiard, Ed Hughes, Jim Moran, McAfee Campbell, Lloyd Anderson, Dale Woodruff, Donald Starnier, Bob Sullivan, Sam Shoemaker, Billy Woodruff, Larry Anderson, Calvin Pearson, Roy Albertus, Tony Anderson, Billy Goodlow, Lowell Atterbury, Lowell Baker, Virgil Sanders and manager, Paul Erno.

Coach Watts cut the large cake. The program included: a short talk by Coach Watts thanking Mr. and Mrs. Wiard for the fine banquet and social hour; short talk by the host, Clyde Wiard, followed by talks by Maynard Bell, News-Review representative; Marshall Penner, KINR radio representative; Dr. G. C. Finlay on the team, its spirit, its courage, its achievements, other than in victories. Coach Watts reviewed the season and honored five players who will graduate, Lowell Baker, Virgil Sanders, Lowell Atterbury, Calvin Pearson and Dale Woodruff. The team played twenty-four games, winning sixteen and losing eight. Virgil Sanders gave a talk on behalf of the graduating seniors and Jim Finlay responded for the returning players.

The banquet was unusually enjoyable and was greatly appreciated by every player and guest. COUNTY health — set held —
