Today's Pattern

GAY SPORTS OR SUNTAN DRESS PATTERN 4401

by Anne Adams

Very young ideas has this spirited new Anne Adams dress, Pattern 4401. Make an everyday style a sleeveless suntan version, or both! The button-trimmed, curved sections at either side of the round yoke form becoming straps on the low-back sun frock. The softly bloused bodice lines are fine for action, and there's a back-tying sash for a trim waistline. Because fashion endorses pockets this year, add either dashing big pockets or the smaller ones to this style. Why not use cool all-white linen, plique or shirtings. Or, for an arresting note, you might let the sleeves and yoke be in brave bold contrasting color.

Pattern 4401 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS AND STYLE NUMBER.

Capture SPRING ENCHANTMENT with a wardrobe selected from our ANNE ADAMS SPRING PATTERN BOOK. It interprets the day and lovely new styles in colorful clothes for tots, teens and twenties... slim-line dresses for the business girl... smart frocks for the woman-past-forty... an exquisite costume for the bride and appealing new fashions in prints and cottons... all available in easy-to-sew patterns. BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. PATTERN FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

POET'S CORNER

A POET'S MODEL

A poet must have a model To shape, as with tools; The thoughts of idle passers Or the depth that lie in pools.

The loveliness or ugliness, The roses or the weeds, The dancer in the moonlight Or the beggar as he pleads.

He must shape them With his own hand, Touch their lovely splendor And see them as they're planned.

Words of passing friendship, Or looks that turn him back, Like white snow on a hillside Leave their ever deepening track.

A poet must have a model To carve and shape with tools, The thoughts of 'idle' passers And the dreams of 'earnest' fools.

—G. M. Leeper.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS
The Cross of Christ reveals the length to which God's love went in seeking to redeem and liberate sinful man. It is the revelation of divine love persisting in the face of sin at its worst. The length of this divine love in contact with man's sin is what so-called theories of the atonement seek to set forth under various aspects, and in the Bible we have different terms, as "ransom," "justification," "propitiation," "reconciliation," terms taken up from Jewish religion. The Apostle Paul seeks to explain the saving significance of Christ's death, but the important thing is the essential abiding fact of a personal religious experience, which he sought to express through his varying attempted formulations, the fact that he had been "made nigh unto God," through the death of the cross. There we have, in the cross of Christ, as nowhere else, the meeting-point of the two great facts of human history, man's sin and God's love, and we see God's love triumphing over man's sin. "Beneath the cross of Jesus I find would take my stand. The shadow of a mighty rock within a weary land; a home within the wilderness, a rest upon the way. From the burning of the noon-tide heat, and the burden of the day," Amen.
