Today's Pattern

A PIQUANT, CRISP AFTER-NOONER PATTERN 4402

by Anne Adams

It's charming...disarming...and just what you need for go-to-meetings. Anne Adams' Pattern 4402! Those princess lines are like and young, while a center seam in back for perfect fit, and neat darts at the back waistline. In front the side seams square-out at the shoulders to form smart yokes. Softly draped at the sides take good care of your bustline. Make the sleeves long or short, and choose one of three beauteous neck versions: A crisp stand-up, ruff with a ribbon bow...a girlish little collar...or a "cat's whiskers" bow. The last two styles are pretty in self or contrasting fabric, and may have small matching sleeve tabs.

Pattern 4402 is available in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards ruffling.

our children." Mrs. Colvin, national vice president, spoke to "Our homes." "We can no longer protect our homes with high stockades and moats. We must continually call attention to the activities of the liquor interests and their avowed intent to put beer in every home." The national slogan for this year's work is "Home protection."

Roger W. Babson, widely known evaluator of financial and spiritual life, said recently: "After repeat I realized the terrific danger of the commercialized liquor traffic. Not drinkers alone suffer, but the country and youth. Accessibility increases use. America's keenest minds are using the newspapers, magazines, movies and radio to entice youth to drink whiskey." Mrs. Southwick presented ten boys and girls from the L.T.L. in a play showing how the Young Crusader Magazine goes into homes and hospitals and the good it does.
