Today's Pattern

MATRON'S SLIM PANELED STYLE PATTERN 4408

by Anne Adams

There's a "just-out-of-the-hand" freshness about Anne Adams' Pattern 4408. A dress you'll wear for gay afternoons and evenings all through spring and summer! Those wide front and back panels give the taller, slimmer lines your figure needs and are easy to stitch, too. Parts at the shoulders hold in place the neck, bodice, fullness. Aren't the revers young and casual-looking? Make them in contrast—say lace-trimmed eyelet-embroidery—or in self-fabric. And you might use matching or contrasting tie-bands, or sew crisp ruffles down the bodice seams and at the sleeve tucks. Let the Sewing Instructor show your work.

Pattern 4408 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 34 yards 29 inch fabric and 38 yard contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

I think I know.

Why the west wind blows;

For I followed it closely,

And saw where it goes.

I know what you're thinking.

The west wind told;

One stopped your loom

With its cloth of gold.

For the pattern you wore

Had a weak, weak thread;

And would probably break.

When the folds were spread.

It had an untrue meaning.

That you thought was true;

And when the cloth was finished

It would be hard to undo.

I know what you're thinking.

For I heard the wind, in the thread

And it was the same west wind

That passed overhead.

Yes, I think I know.

Why the west winds blow:

Down into our hearts,

Where others must go.
