Painful Kick-Back

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo.—Louis Hoyer, 13, took his father's hammer style 10-gauge double-barrelled shotgun out to kill the ingredients of a blackbird pie.

Leveling the gun at a tree, in which several hundred birds were fluttering, Hoyer pulled both triggers.

Doctors at the hospital where the youth was taken, said the recoil jerked the gun from his hands, the hammers striking him in the month, knocking out several teeth and causing severe lacerations. He killed 29 birds.
