COTERIE CLUB TO SPONSOR ENTERTAINMENT

GLENDAL, April 11.—The Glendale Coterie club will sponsor an informal evening entertainment at the city hall on Friday, April 12, at eight o'clock, for the benefit of the library. This will be given in place of the annual silver tea, as it will appeal to a greater number of library patrons.

The program will consist of several musical numbers, both instrumental and vocal, and the skit, "The Little Coo-Coo," recently presented by the Coterie club. A number of new books will be on display and the library will be open for inspection by the public. Later in the evening refreshments will be served.

A small admittance charge will be made. This entertainment, taking the place of the usual tea, and a sum given annually by the city, is the only means of purchasing books and providing for the upkeep of the library, aside from the amount regularly contributed by the members of the Coterie club.

LADIES AID HAS MEETING THURSDAY

CANYONVILLE, April 12.—The ladies aid was graciously entertained at the home of Mrs. Victor Shaw Thursday afternoon, April 4. POET'S CORNER

SPRING'S TAPESTRY

By Orpha Collins.
A background fresh spring gayly weaves
Of opening buds and tender leaves,
A wary of woods is set beyond
Each rippling brook or silvery pond.

Then lovers come upon the scene
And pledge their troth and Spence
Is queen
And when she weaves their hearts
As one
Her tapestry is neatly done.

New Canyonville Cafe Follows Aviation Motif

CANYONVILLE, April 12.—Larry Womack's novelty restaurant, the Airport cafe, will be opened here Saturday. The restaurant occupies a building newly constructed and shaped in the form of an airplane hangar. An aeronautical design is used throughout in interior decorations. Waitresses will wear hostess uniforms. The aviation idea is carried out even to a wind sock above the building.

Mr. Womack, who for the past two and a half years has operated the Greenwich tavern at Canyonville, conceived the novel idea for his new business after becoming a member of the Umpqua Flying club. He now is one of the licensed solo fliers of that club, and in fitting up his new restaurant made several trips by plane to Eugene and return by bus, furniture, fixtures and equipment.
