Scout Rag Drive To Finance Camp

Roseburg residents are asked today by Boy Scout leaders to cooperate Saturday with Scouts soliciting homes throughout the city in connection with a rag drive. The Scouts will visit homes and collect old rags, which will be sold, and proceeds used to defray expenses to the annual summer camp.

Boys from Troops 4 and 7 of Roseburg and 76 at Green, will participate. The drive will be conducted throughout the entire city and immediate surrounding residential districts. Persons having a supply of old rags at their homes and who are willing to donate them to the Scouts are requested to have the rags bundled and ready for the youthful solicitors.

The market price on old rags is reported to have risen sharply and if a large volume can be obtained the Scouts may realize a considerable sum to be used in assisting in raising funds, which to meet camp expenses for boys who will be unable to attend without such assistance. The drive will be under the supervision of James Henbest, assistant scoutmaster of Troop No. 7.
