DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

The need for human sympathy is as wide as the human race. There is a hymn that asks, "Do you know the world is dying for a little bit of love?" That means sympathy and understanding. Because our Heavenly Father is the God of all comfort and is kind toward the unthankful and the evil, we who are His children, should imitate our Father by being kind one to another and by bearing one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ. St. Paul was urging human sympathy when he wrote: "Now we who are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak." Jesus pleads for sympathy when He warned in the sermon on the mount: "Judge not," and gave us the Golden Rule. Again, Jesus pleads: "Be ye merciful, even as your Father in Heaven is merciful." The Good Samaritan was commended because "he showed mercy." As the earth is full of the loving kindness of God, so we are to be kind and sympathetic, forgiving and loving to all others. About Ben Adhem said: "Put me down as one who loves his fellow men." May we be kind and sympathetic and tender toward others. Make us comforters of others day by day. Amen.
