ternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Steen lived in Olalla for many years before moving to Myrtle Creek a couple of years ago.

Mrs. Bell Clark and Mrs. Jim Barnes called on Mrs. Roy J. Carnall Sunday afternoon. Mr. Carnall is still in the Veterans hospital at Roseburg where he is receiving treatment for a kidney ailment. Fred Byron, old time Olalla resident, is also a patient at the hospital, being taken there from Mercy hospital last week. Mr. Byron is a world war veteran and is being treated for a heart ailment.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ollivant went to Marshfield Saturday morning to spend the weekend with their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Blonnie Nevaull. While there the party made a loop trip up the coast to Astoria and home through Portland, to Dr. In, then down the beautiful Umpqua river to Reedsport and home to Marshfield. Mr. Nevaull has recently purchased a new Buick sedan which made the long trip an easy drive. The Ollivants returned to their home in Olalla Sunday evening.

CATERPILLARS FARMED OUT.
In Olalla, silkworm caterpillars are farmed out by their owners to be fed. When they transform themselves into silk-covered cocoons, they are returned and weighed, and the feeder is paid according to the weight of his offering.
