Today's Pattern

BECOMING DRESS WITH BELT
PATTERN 4391

by Anne Adams

Sweetly demure... or smartly tailored—here's a style that can change like a summer breeze. If fashioned of a sheer, flower-splashed fabric, Anne Adams' Pattern 4391 is very dainty. The front panels of its flaring skirt rise to a high point to give your waist a span-of-the-hand effect; the bodice is soft; and the graceful V-neckline and sleeves are pretty with lace edging. But if you need a more tailored and trim, you'll interpret the style in a jaunty belted and matching skirt of dark crepe. Perhaps with a bodice of fresh white contrast. If you're really wise, you'll make BOTH versions!

Pattern 4391 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16, dress takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards ruffling. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.
