Today's Pattern

SMART APRON IN TWO VERSIONS
PATTERN 4394

by Anne Adams

Practical prettiness is the keynote of this kitchen newcomer, Pattern 4394, by Anne Adams. The smooth panelled lines are interrupted at either side by curved seams that make for perfect fit. An ingenious back arrangement keeps the straps up on your shoulders. Just see how well the skirt is cut, almost meeting in back to make your frock shadow-proof on warm, without-a-slip days. The front panel may be in bright contrast for color. Version A shows the top cut into decorative points and the whole panel gayly framed by ruffling. Apron B has a rounded top and ric-rac trim.

Pattern 4394 is available in sizes small, medium and large. Small size, view A, takes 2 yards 35 inch fabric and 2 2-8 yards ruffling; view B, 2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

Congressman Freed of U. S. Jobs Sale Charges

GAINESVILLE, Ga., May 6.—(AP)—Rep. B. Frank Whelchel (D-Ga.) was acquitted in federal court today of charges that he conspired to sell postal appointments.

The verdict also freed Whelchel's co-defendant, H. Grady Jones, who was accused by the government as go-between for the congressman in the alleged job sales.

In one indictment of five counts Whelchel was charged with receiving $1,100 each from two men for appointment as rural carriers at Ball Ground, Ga. Jones was alleged to have been a go-between in payment of the money.

Another indictment of one count charged Whelchel with making an alleged agreement to sell a postmastership.

The defense admitted Whelchel received $2,700 from constituents but claimed it was all given freely as "campaign contributions." Whelchel himself testified he might have been "indiscreet" in accepting some of the "contributions."

POET'S CORNER

PRE-ELECTION POLITICIANS

The weary politician
Is tramping all the while.
He has to keep on smiling
O'er many a dreary mile.

Some treat him rather rudely;
Some greet him with delight.
He's just the guy they want to see;
For him they'll vote, all right!

He passes out his cards all day
To people left and right
Till both his arms ache through and through;
By evening he's a sight.

He must endure all this until
Comes 'round election night.
When he will learn for once and all
The outcome of the fight.

—Alice Humphreys and Jean Barneburg, Wilbur, Ore.
