 Richard Reich, department adjutant of the United Spanish War Veterans, said there were at least that many members of the old 2d Oregon regiment remaining.

OREGON'S FAIREST
 To you, Canyonville, may be merely a widening in 99 highway. It's more! It is the home of Oregon's most beautiful woman. Don't rush, boys! The lady is married and the mother of several children. Canyonville is also the home of J. P. Smick and we ask you in all sincerity to give your vote for him for county commissioner. We always elect him here by UNANIMOUS vote and he is the man you and we need on the board.—(Paid adv. by Canyonville Citizens' Committee.)
