Deeds

Not by birth does one become an outcast.

Not by birth does one become a noble.

Through deeds it is that one becomes an outcast.

Through deeds it is that one becomes a noble.—Sutta.

Every man feels instinctively that all the beautiful sentiments in the world weigh less than a single lovely action.—James Russell Lowell.

Goodness and philanthropy begin with work and never stop working. All that is worth reckoning is what we do, and the best of everything is not too good, but is economy and riches.—Mary Baker Eddy. I must do something to keep my thoughts fresh and growing.—James A. Garfield.

It is the little things well done that go to make up a successful and truly good life.—Theodore Roosevelt.

Let us decide honestly what we can do, and then do it with all our might.—Amelia D. Barr.

DOLLARS THAT REACH TO NEXT WEEK

People who make a study of such things say there are three ways to make money STRETCH.

First. Budget. Plan your expenses and keep a record of what's spent.

Second. Watch the pennies. It's the little savings that mount up.

Third. Buy carefully. That's where advertising comes in. Printed news in this paper, from store and manufacturer, keeps you advised of the best buys of the day.

Read the advertisements--carefully. They'll give you the kind of information that makes this week's dollars reach over to next week!
