

R. H. S. Splits Two Tennis Matches

The Roseburg high school tennis tennis broke even in two tournaments over the weekend, defeating University high school of Eugene 6 to 1 and losing 4 to 3 in a very closely contested match with Eugene high school. The Roseburg players previously had won from Eugene high in a tournament at Roseburg.

Against University high, Roseburg lost one game of singles in a match which went into three sets, taking all other matches in two sets and by wide margins. Scores were: Singles: Carstens (R) versus Forsyth (UH) 6-2, 6-0; Cacy (R) versus Kelley (UH) 6-0, 6-2; Sullivan (R) versus Luck (UH) 6-0, 6-2; Stump (UH) versus Campbell (R) 2-6, 6-2, 6-2; Nees (R) versus Carey (UH) 6-2, 6-0. Doubles: Carstens and Cacy versus Kelley and Forsyth 6-1, 6-0; Sullivan and Campbell versus Luck and Stump 7-5, 6-3.

Overconfidence from having defeated Eugene high school in the previous meeting at Roseburg was credited principally by Coach Homer Grow for the Roseburg defeat in Saturday's tournament against the Eugene school. Several of the sets went into extra games and close scores, but the Roseburg players, Coach Grow said, lacked their usual speed and energy.

Singles: Carstens (R) versus H. Howard (E) 6-0, 6-3; Zimmerman (E) versus Cacy (R) 9-7, 2-6, 8-6; P. Howard (E) versus Sullivan (R) 8-6, 4-6, 6-2; Reed (E) versus Nees (R) 6-1, 8-6; Wood (E) versus Campbell (R) 6-1, 6-8, 6-2. Doubles: Cacy and Zimmerman versus Howard and Zimmerman 6-3, 7-5; Sullivan and Nees (R) versus Reed and P. Howard 6-1, 6-2.

Roseburg will meet Salem high school on the local courts Friday and Corvallis high school will play here Saturday.

Reigns Over May Day Fete

Queen Velma (Crocker), above, was the gracious and lovely queen of the annual May day fete held Saturday at Roseburg high school before a large audience. Her court was decorated in wisteria and Scotch broom, to provide a beautiful setting for the festivities. Miss Crocker was elected to reign over the fete by a vote of the student body.

Portland Splits 2 Games With Padres

By The Associated Press
San Diego, conference leader, played out in front in the Pacific Coast league standings today after splitting a double bill with Portland yesterday. The Padres dropped the first, 7 to 5, but won 6 to 0 in the seven-inning nightcap.

The Seattle Rainiers, who jumped from fifth place to third during the week's play by winning five of seven games, held their place in the first division, taking Los Angeles 5 to 3 and 8 to 6 for both ends of yesterday's doubleheader. Hal Turpin, Seattle pitcher, tossed 12 hits in the opener, but the Angels were held scoreless until the last inning.

Hollywood and Oakland broke even in Sunday's twin bill. Oakland won the first 5 to 3 and Hollywood took the nightcap 3 to 1.

In the San Francisco Seals' invasion of Sacramento last week they took five games out of seven, including two yesterday, 3 to 2 and 4 to 2.

Yesterday's scores:
Portland 100 209 310—7 11 3
San Diego 109 210 091—5 13 1
Hitcher, Gabler (9) and Fernandez; Herbert, Morris (7) and De-toe.

Second game (7 innings):
Portland 000 000 0—0 1 1
San Diego 020 211 x—0 7 1
Orrell, Thomas (5), and Fernandez; Adams (2); Olson and Salkeld.

Yankees Shut Out League Leaders

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The New York Yankees still are to be reckoned with in the American league pennant race.

The way they bounced up from the bottom of standings yesterday to shut out the Boston Red Sox 4-0, was a forceful performance. Ruffing whipped out that old fast ball and spread six hits smartly, struck out eight and walked only two. This teammates gave him superb support—no errors and two double plays.

This not only ended the jinx left-handed pitchers had held over them, and an eight game losing streak, but it also stopped a six-game winning streak for Boston's league leaders and was the first time they had been shut out this season.

In the National league the out-

Prelims for Local Fight Card Listed

Two of the preliminary bouts for Wednesday night's armory boxing card were announced today by Rocky Bhamani, matchmaker. Pat Kelly, Roseburg, will meet Bob Littlejohn, Chesham, in a four-round event. Both are middleweights. "Box Car" Cline of "Jungleland," will meet Charlie Gier of Portland. They, too, are middleweights.

The card will feature Leo Turner, the colored state middleweight champion, of Portland, in a 10-round title bout with Kenny Austin, formerly of Omaha, now a resident of Albany, Oregon. Young Nationalista, Portland, and Ernie Bailey, Aberdeen, featherweights, will fight the six-round semi-final. Halsey Fonton, Sutherlin, will be matched in the four-round special event against Buddy Walner of Vancouver, with the winner scheduled to meet the victor in the Nationalista-Bailey argument. Walner has been selected to meet Fonton, rather than Martin Kivi, formerly scheduled, due to Walner's better hitting power. It was reported.

The advance ticket sale now is in progress and all indications, Mr. Bhamani states, points to a large attendance.

The bouts will be refereed by Kid McCoy of Enterprise, Ore., one of the state's best welter weight about 15 years ago. McCoy has been officiating in Salem, Marshfield and Enterprise recently.

NOTICE
My attention has been called to a rumor in circulation, that if I am elected District Attorney a member of my family will be employed in that office. Such is not true, as I will not employ any member of my family nor any relative, and if elected will conduct the office without a deputy.
H. A. CANADAY,
Candidate for District Attorney.
