Today's Pattern

NOVELTY IN PANELED FROCK PATTERN 4433

by Anne Adams

Casual style . . . well-balanced lines . . . and colorful imagination make this front-buttoned frock, Pattern 4433 by Anne Adams, an outstanding summer choice. Those yokes and smart optional pockets are just MADE to carry off the patriotic tri-colors so popular this season—red and blue on white! Perhaps you will prefer another stunning color combination or an all-one fabric. The softness of the frock is gathered-in below the yokes and is smoothly trim at the waistline. A belt comes from the slenderizing front panel to tie in back; the square neckline is cool and comfortable.

Pattern 4433 is available in misses' and women's sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34 and 36. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and one-half yard contrast. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Select your warm weather wardrobe from our new ANNE ADAMS SUMMER PATTERN BOOK! Flattering sport clothes for sun and surf—romantic evening gowns—a costume for the June bride—the correct thing for travel wear—options for informal and dress occasions and "pocket edition" styles for children—all the fashion ingredients for a successful Summer designed for you by Anne Adams. Order your copy today. The book is fifteen cents but when ordered with a pattern, which is also fifteen cents, the TWO TOGETHER ARE TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

Around the County

Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK, May 17.—Leonard Larson has gone to Nebraska for a visit with his mother, who is quite sick.

Quite a bit of excitement was felt in the east side of the village about sundown last Saturday evening when Harold Bates came walking down the creek with the announcement that his two-year-old son, Richard was lost. After considerable scurrying around—looking in the creek and so on, the child was found at the back side of the Bates' lot, sitting down in the tall grass and playing quietly. When the tot had just begun walking he ran away and fell over the high creek bank near his home and narrowly escaped drowning.

Mother's day was fittingly observed at both churches last Sunday. Special music and exercises, presentation of beautiful bouquets to the oldest and youngest mothers and special messages from the pulpit made the day more impressive for the attendants. At the Christian church a playlet featuring the day of Pentecost was given at the evening service.

On Monday evening the Cotton Blossom quintet from the Piney Woods school in Mississippi gave a concert at the Christian church. The house was well filled with sympathetic listeners who appreciated the spirituals and old time songs sung by the blind boys. This school is for colored people and like most of that race these young men have fine voices.
