Phillies Spurt Up To Fifth Position

By SID FEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Stranger, you'd better smile when you say they're the "Phoolish Phillies" these days.

Besides, the Cincinnati Reds, who boosted their league lead to a game and a half with an 8-4 win over the Boston Bees yesterday, may have something to say about that.

But the Phils have taken four of the five starts on their current home stand, topping it off with a 6-5 decision the "hard way" over the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday.

Right now they're in fifth place, which is as familiar to the Phils as pate de fois gras to the Bowery.

The Chicago Cubs spotted the Brooklyn Dodgers five runs in a third inning rally, and then came on to win out 7-6 in the tenth on Russell's homer with a mate aboard.

The St. Louis Cardinals, after blowing a three-run lead, tied it up on Oregano's eighth-inning homer against the New York Giants, and finished on top 6-5, in the tenth when the same Mr. Oregano came through with a single to shove the deciding run home.

In Boston, Buck Walters treated himself to a five-hitter for the first time.

Reds and knocked off the Bees for his sixth straight win.

The best tossing of the after noon was provided by Cleveland's Bobby Feller at the expense of the New York Yankees. Master Bobby chalked up his fifth victory of the year, pitching a four-hitter for a 5-1 win over the woful world champions.

The Chicago White Sox did their best to produce their first home victory of the season, but despite a five-run rally in the ninth, they wound up on the short end of a 12-10 count with Washington in a game marked by half a dozen homers.

Old Eddies Auker pitched the St. Louis Browns to a 10-4 victory over the Athletics.

Oakland Blanks Angels in Sunday Doubleheader

(By The Associated Press)

Two shutouts in one day!

The Oakland Acons have been running near the front of the Pacific Coast league race all season, but when they blanked the Los Angeles Angels 4 to 0 and 5 to 0 yesterday on top of an 8 to 1 victory Saturday, they moved into the super class.

Corbett, Oakland moundman, allowed five hits in the opener and Darrow, veteran portlander, cut it to two in the night cap to put the Acons within a half game of the leading San Diego Padres.

In the northwest Portland and Seattle split a double header, Portland took the first 5 and 3 and Seattle the second 3 to 2. Seattle won the series, four games to three.

Sacramento won the second game of a twin bill with San Diego 3 to 0 after an 11 to 3 loss to the Padres in the opener.

Hollywood stepped back into fourth place with a double win over San Francisco, 11 to 9, and 3 to 2.
