POET'S CORNER

NO ONE COULD MAKE A SONG LIKE THAT

Over many keys
So carefully laid,
Beneath the fern
Soft gentle shade.

No slender fingers
Touched those keys,
No thoughtless, rough,
Nor gentle breeze.

No song lay spread
For it to sing;
The gay wild brook
Disdained the thing.

God made that song
With rocks for keys,
And let it play
Beneath the trees.

No one could make
A song like that;
Swift o'er the rocks
And slowly down
The meadow that
G. M. Leeper.

NEEDS NO WORD

The voice that does not ask
Is oftener heard,
For it speaks
With the heart
That needs no word.
G. M. Leeper.

Today's Pattern

MAGICALLY SLIM MATRON DRESS PATTERN 4403

by Anne Adams

Simple, clean-cut, 1940 lines are a joy to mature figures. Pattern 4403—An Anne Adams frock for afternoons, is quietly dignified, yet makes you best-dressed woman of any occasion. There's wonderful above-the-waistline flattery in a curved V-neckline and in attractive front yokes whose design is repeated in the sleevebands. Gathers and darts keep the softness of the bodice in place for a slim silhouette, and a yoke goes straight across the action-fall back. Those three front skirt panels will do wonders for your figure. Here's a ray idea—why not try yokes and sleevebands in a contrasting color or in lively lace for a party-time style?

Pattern 4403 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER.

Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

The central thing in the life of Israel was the tabernacle. The most prominent object in the tabernacle was the altar. The significant truth about the altar was that the flame thereon should be kept burning all the time. The religion of Israel was a religion of symbols. The people were taught not only by what they heard through their ears; they were also instructed by what they could see with their eyes. The prophet's voice was heard throughout the land, and his message was driven home by a visible demonstration before the people's eyes. We have altars today. There is a pronounced return even among ardent evangelists, to the symbolism of worship. How elaborate are some of these altars, how costly, how richly adorned. The grave danger is not in the altar, but in our neglect of the altar. Too often we are confident we have the altar without the flame. We should keep the fire burning. The fire of the earnest study of God's word, the fire of Christian brotherliness, the fire of childhood and youth preserved in purity and strength through faith in Christ. A fire should be lighted on the altar of our hearts that will never go out. Let us keep the fire burning. Amen.

and their invited guests have been asked to enjoy the occasion.

B. P. W. C. NO-HOSTESS LUNCHEON TO BE FRIDAY

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club are invited to enjoy the 12 o'clock no-hostess noon luncheon Friday at the Hotel Empqua. Mrs. William Bell, chairman of the weekly luncheons, will be in charge.

Fisher, all of Nugget.

Mrs. Lena Johnson, who was so badly burned last September when her cabin near the Continental mine was burned, has been home from the hospital for some time, but is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith. During her absence the neighbors built a nice trailer house for "Grandma" as she is lovingly known. It is not quite finished but is a model of convenience and is parked on the G. E. Endicott farm by the side of the road where she will soon be at home.

James Heath, son of Mrs. Dell Heath of Nugget on upper South Myrtle, who was badly cut on the back of the neck last Thursday while logging in the Azalea woods, is reported to be recovering rapidly. He is in a hospital in Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant "Bud" Aldridge were breakfast guests at the home of Mr. Aldridge's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Aldridge, Monday, en route to the Old Fellows convention in Corvallis, where they are delegates from their home lodge in Medford.

Mrs. J. C. Maxson is representing the local Rebekah lodge as an alternate delegate for Mrs. George Norman, who was unable to attend the convention. Ted Shircliff will go up to the convention Wednesday to represent the I.O.O.F. Mrs. Shircliff expects to go for a visit with the Norman Duncans at Sweet Home.

Mrs. Effa Spencer of Roseburg, who formerly lived here, was called to Mankato, Minnesota, during April, by the death of her mother, Mrs. Kate Currier, who also lived in Myrtle Creek before returning to her old home in the east. Mrs. Spencer found her brother, Archie's, family sick with influenza but stayed until they were all recovered.

Mrs. Carl Benz and small son, Richard, left Monday for her home in Houston, Texas, after a two weeks' visit with her stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ehrhart of Hilger creek. Mrs. Benz is returning via her old home in St. Louis, Mo.

The I.O.O.F. building is having its face lifted, so to speak, and is getting a fine coat of white paint at the hands of Bob Butts and Harold Bates, who are applying it with a paint gun or sprayer. Mr. Bates is superintending the work. The building, Post across the street, owned and managed by Andrew Whitney, is also undergoing an overhauling. The interior is being finished up and will soon be bright and shining, while the outside will receive a coat of paint also.

Mrs. T. J. Danner has gone to her home at Shedd to look after her strawberry crop. Mr. Danner is the S. P. agent here.

Mrs. Josephine Coryell returned home Wednesday from a three months' visit in southern California. Her first stop was with her sister, Mrs. Alice Blaw at Visalia. She then went to the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacHale, who live at Lodi, Calif. While there the senior MacHales went to Detroit, Michigan, for a new car, and Mrs. Coryell stayed with the grandchildren. She states she is glad to be home as she had asthma all the time she was in the south.

Elmer "Nick" Heath was severely injured Friday while working in the woods near Myrtle Point, according to rumors which reached his people here. His brother, Craig, was also reported slightly hurt. The accident was purported to have been caused by some exploding dynamite caps which were in a trash fire which the boys had raked up to eat their noontime lunch by. The boys were thrown into the air by the explosion. They and another man in the crew were taken to a hospital in Myrtle Point but the extent of their injuries could not be ascertained.

Bruce Wynter visited with his mother and sister here from Monday to Wednesday. Mr. Wynter is employed in a Standard Oil plant in Portland.

Mrs. V. Bounds of Dole is spending two weeks in California as a guest at the home of her daughter and family, the Leslie Childers, who live at Cottonwood, near Redding. She will also visit another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wall, at Sacramento, before returning home. Mrs. Margaret McManis went with her mother as far as Medford where another daughter, Mrs. Clara Rice, went on to Redding with her. Mrs. Rice is spending a few days this week at the Bounds' farm at Dole.

Mrs. Alvin Walker and little son, Richard, of Alameda, are visiting here with relatives. Mrs. Walker is a sister of Mrs. Oren Lodge, wood.

Poppies of 2 Types Will Go on Sale

Two types of memorial poppies will go on sale in Roseburg Saturday as the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars each conduct their annual campaign for funds for welfare and relief work.

Many persons, it is announced, do not know that two flower sales are conducted simultaneously. The Legion's memorial poppy and the V. F. W. poppy are of identical origin and purpose, and all Douglas county residents are urged to buy one or more of each of the flowers.

Made by hospitalized veterans, these flowers provide the only income some of these ex-service men receive during the course of a year. The men who make the poppies receive individually a share of the price paid for the flowers, while the balance of the fund goes to the relief of veterans and their widows and orphans. Officers of the organizations conducting the sale, point out.
