Today's Pattern

STYLE HAS FOUR NECK VERSIONS
PATTERN 4460
by Anne Adams

The well-known spice of variety is effectively applied to this dress. Designed by Anne Adams, Pattern 4460 give you a choice of FOUR NECKLINES! One is square and ruffled edged... one has revers and the last shows a young round collar. Lace edging looks dainty on the collar and the bow versions, and edging the wide cuff-bands. You might let the buttons form novel triplets down the opening. Darts cinch in the waistline, with the skirt flaring out below; your shoulders are trimly yoked. Depending on fabric and style, this pattern makes a party frock, a sportswear or a working dress.

Pattern 4460 is available in junior sizes 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17. Size 13 takes 2 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. 2 1/2 yards of lace edging.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for Miss Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Ore.

GWENDOLYN WEAVER IS COMPLIMENTED AT CHARMING SHOWER PARTY

CAMAS VALLEY, May 24.—Miss Gwendolyn Weaver, primary teacher, who will be a bride of the early summer, was given a surprise shower in the gymnasium of the school by her pupils Friday afternoon, May 17, at 2:30 o'clock, while Miss Weaver was sent to the store on an errand by the P. T. C. president, the guests and pupils assembled in the gymnasium. A mock wedding party waited in one of the school rooms and on Miss Weaver's return from her errand Miss Louise Anderson played "Here Comes the Bride" while the party marched in before the guests. The minister, Eddie Goodell, led the march, followed by Irene Atkinson in a floor length green dress scattering rose petals from a basket. Next came the bride and groom, Mary Lee Hoggins in white carrying a bouquet of mixed flowers and ferns and George Packard in a black suit. Two flower girls, Helen Wakefield, and Melva Elaine Packard, in floor length pink dresses, carrying mixed bouquets completed the party.

The minister read a very impressive service in which the bride promised to milk the cows, cut and carry the wood, and carry the water, while the groom was to wash the dishes, sew on his buttons, and get his own breakfast.

After the wedding Miss Weaver was presented with the gifts with a beautifully decorated umbrella in pink and white. A reception followed, several of the school mothers serving refreshments.

Those present were the honor guest, Miss Weaver, Mrs. B. Wakefield, Mrs. Glen Wafer, Mrs. Darrell Goodell, Mrs. Hazel Hogan, Mrs. A. J. Standley, Mrs. G. R. Moore, Mrs. O. C. Bixler, Mrs. Chas.
