By The Associated Press

Frank Fisherman
INTERNATIONAL F & L L S. Minn.—There's a business man here who would delight Isaac Walton. He inserted the following advertisement in a paper:
For sale: Good paying business. $500 will handle. Ideal location. Owner wants to spend summer fishing.

Consideration
MILWAUKEE—Emil Valon.

God has given us the ability to dream, and this ability is to be used for a powerful purpose. We may not only build our dreams, visualizing deeds and kindnesses during each new day, but we may also transfer them into enduring realities. Let us dream and then go forth to use that dream for the glory of God and the service of man. Victor Hugo wrote some daring but meaningful lines, "I feel in myself the future life. I am like a forest cut down; the new shoots are stronger and livelier than ever. I am rising. I know, toward the stars. The sun is on my head. The earth gives me its generous sap, but heaven lights me with the reflection of unknown worlds. Lovers build their dreams into lovely homes, scientific mechanics transform dreams into machines; the followers of Jesus make their dreams into deeds of goodness. Paul says: 'I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.' What do you actually want to happen today? Our dreams, our hopes, and our expectations color our life, making it either lovely or hideous. Amen."

charged with disregarding a traffic signal, told the judge he was 81 years old and had been driving "since automobiles were invented."

"And," added Valon, "this is my first offense."

Insult
SALT LAKE CITY—Mrs. Lewis M. Griffith didn't mind so much the theft of five gallons of gasoline. What irked was that the thieves ruined her garden hose. They cut two feet from it to siphon the fuel from her automobile.
