GREYHOUND

"CURIOUS? SURE I WAS — BUT NOW I'M A BETTER COFFEE BUYER!"

I called closer! What could be interesting the critical Mrs. Gates? Frankly curious, I listened. "I'm proud to recommend this coffee," my grocer was saying. "These are choice beans selected for mellow richness!" Then I saw the bag. It was Airway!

Inspired by his enthusiasm, I got a pound of Airway. "Here's coffee at peak goodness," he explained. "I order direct from nearby ovens, and delivery is so quick that the roaster can forget about expensive containers and use a thrifty bag!"

And talk about fragrant! Going through the grinder, Airway smelled so good that I was more than ever amazed at the low price. "Airway costs little," he smiled, "but it's so fresh, so delicious that thousands prefer it to high priced blends. Use Airway for a week. It's guaranteed! Your money back unless it satisfies!"

YONCALIA, May 28.—Eight seniors, members of the class of 1940 Yoncalia high school received their diplomas at the commencement exercises held in the high school gym, Thursday, May 23. They were Howard Applegate, Peggy Congswell, Mary

Kingery, Tommy Hollamon, Nancy Madden, Wanda Swearingen, Priscilla Turpin and Bill Wittmeyer.

Miss Nancy Madden won the scholarship, Misses Mary Kingery and Priscilla Turpin the award on merits.

The orchestra played the procession, followed by invocation by Rev. Isaac Burton. Miss Mary Kingery gave the salutatory address, after which Dr. Victor P. Morris, professor of economics at the University of Oregon gave the address. Miss Wanda Swearingen gave the class history. Peggy Congswell the class prophecy and Nancy Madden the valedictory address. The stage was beautifully decorated to represent a garden, with trellises of blue covered with trailing rose vines and pink roses. Pink snap dragons and ferns were used in profusion across the front of the stage, and in the rear.

Yoncalia grade and high schools closed Friday after a very successful term of school. On Thursday the 7th and 8th grades with their teacher, Robert Johnson, enjoyed a picnic at the Cunningham swimming hole west of Drain.

The 5th and 6th grades, Miss Beulah Applegate teacher, went to the Minor Applegate grove east of town and the 3rd and 4th grades with their teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Stoute, enjoyed a picnic at the Grant Applegate grove.

Miss Christine Jensen left Friday for her home in Williamina, Howard Parks to Pleasant Hill, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Marsh will leave in a week for Eugene where they will make their home this summer.

ELKTON, May 28.—Baccalaureate services for the senior class of Elkton high school were held at the school auditorium Sunday evening. The procession was played by Mrs. Anna Bauer and the graduates were led by Lenore Gates and Zane Adams. Following the scripture reading and invocation by Rev. Adrian Fraley of the Church of Christ, a vocal duet by Marilyn and Leroy Henderer, and a congregational hymn, the sermon was presented by Sidney Hall. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. G. A. Garbodin of the Methodist church.

Members of the graduating class are Allen Adams, Elizabeth Bullock, Everett Butler, Bernice Garrison, Claude Haines, Mary Belle Henderer, Eugene Holcomb, Maybelle Holcomb, Vern Kester-son, Bernie Slagel, Joe Slagel and Henry Weatherly.

Joint eighth grade promotional exercises were held Friday by the Elkton, Kellogg and Oak Knoll schools at the Elkton high school auditorium. Following an enjoyable program of special music, the principal address was delivered by Judge R. W. Marsters of Roseburg. Certificates of graduation were presented by Mrs. Evelyn Binder.

Graduates from the eighth grade at Elkton were Lois Anderson, Loyal Bossen, Royal Bossen, Dale Godel, Leroy Henderer, Clyde Maupin, Pauline Rowe, Warren Schand, Harry Weatherly, Ernest Wells and Jerry Winterbotham. Kellogg: James Bauer and Dale Made. Oak Knoll: Armin Clemo and Claude Riley.

Umpqua Academy Assn. Reunion Set for June 2

The annual reunion of the Umpqua Academy association will be held at Wilbur, June 2. The meeting will mark the 87th anniversary of the founding of the Umpqua academy, the first school of academic learning in southern Oregon, and will be the 24th annual reunion of the association, which is composed of former students of the pioneer school, and the graduates of the Wilbur high school, which succeeded the academy.

Sunday morning will be given over to a business session, and a religious service conducted by the Rev. Orpal Trick. A basket lunch will be enjoyed during the noon hour.

The program, starting at 2 p. m., will feature an address by A. C. Marsters of Roseburg, entertainment by the Coco Cola troupe and community singing.
