Every state, county and city official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it, showing where and how each dollar is spent. This is a fundamental principle of democratic government.

NOBODY in Germany is going to pay much attention to the united protest of the 21 American nations against the invasion of the low countries. Though the Americas with one voice denounced the invasion as "unjustifiable and cruel," and called for re-establishment of law and justice among nations, nobody can expect Hitler to be much impressed at a moment when he is "shooting the works" in a make-or-break military effort.

That does not mean, however, that the American protest is meaningless. It is highly significant.

Franklin wryly told his co-signers of the Declaration of Independence that they'd better hang together or they'd assuredly hang separately later on. That's the way the American countries are beginning to feel about the expansion of totalitarianism in Europe.

The countries to the south have even more reason than the United States to be conscious of possible future danger and of present local interference by sympathizers with foreign systems. Note these recent occurrences:

ARGENTINA: Police raid meetings and demonstrations noisily favoring Germany; arrest German operator of secret German propaganda radio station. Defense measures speeded, series of new naval, air and coast defense bases planned. Italian fascist cells also active.

URUGUAY: Government opens investigation of nazi "fifth column" activities; vast quantities of German propaganda alleged shipped in for organizations of local nazis directed from Berlin. Some small arms caches seized.

PERU: Local nazis raise rumpus at showings of British propaganda movie, forcing its withdrawal. Peruvian senators indignant.

COLOMBIA: Government takes steps to protect oil pipe lines to the coast from interior, believed endangered by organized activities of 2000 nazi sympathizers directed by a nephew of Ribbentrop.

BRAZIL: Vargas government, which forcibly smashed rightist integralistas in May, 1938, smashed active communist activities this April. German airlines set up new routes to interior.

CUBA: Flooded with German propaganda.

MEXICO: Government investigates "fifth column" charges, and alleged infiltration of German agents working closely with communists. Fear July election may present crisis, with possibility that German and Russian agents will foment violence.

These are only a lightning sketch of what is going on to the south. They give, however, an idea of why nazi success in Europe has alarmed the existing regime in almost every country, while giving new heart to all pro-nazi, pro-fascist, and pro-totalitarian elements, now strangely co-operating with the communists.

Thus the united protest of the American countries against the lowland invasion is important in giving one more evidence of the America's determination to stick together against influences which might some day menace them from abroad, and which are already at work to undermine them at home.

Defense Projects Top WPA Policy

WASHINGTON, June 6.—(AP)—Colonel F. C. Harrington, WPA commissioner, gave priority today over all other work relief projects to 73 developments listed by the war and navy departments as of first importance to national defense.

They are in 31 states, the District of Columbia and Hawaii.

Harrington said the priority order was in keeping with his rule to give precedence to both federal and civil WPA projects which would fit quickly into President Roosevelt's national defense plan.

"The program covers many navy yards, military reservations of major size and certain civil airports located in strategic areas," Harrington said.

He said the types of WPA work to be expedited in every possible way included, in addition to airports and military air fields, construction of housing and other facilities for enlarged military garrisons, camps and cantonment construction and various improvements in navy yards.

Funds for the projects are carried in the emergency relief appropriation bill. The senate appropriations committee yesterday amended the legislation to permit use of $25,000,000 to supplement local sponsored contributions on projects of strategic military importance.

ment when the buck is near enough dead for him to rush in and appear to give help to the cougar without taking too much risk himself.

NOW go a step farther. Imagine, if you can, what a greedy, shivering coyote thinks.

His coyote mind must work somewhat in this manner: "This cougar is stronger than I. His sharp claws can rip my hide and his powerful jaws can crunch my spine. And HE KNOWS IT. If I rush in now, as he urges, what will MY SHARE of the partnership be if he decides to TAKE ALL and leave me nothing?

"Knowing that his strength exceeds mine and with greed driving him as well as me, may he not decide to do just that?

IT IS thus that a coyote's mind would undoubtedly run. Craftily and fearfully considering all the possibilities of the situation, it would occur to such a creature that it might be better to forego the risky venison and content himself with such jackrabbits as he can pick up. But still his clamoring hunger for the venison would torture him.

Mussolini must be in somewhat similar plight.

Exaggerated Report

PITTSBURGH, Calif.—The boys in the backroom held a three-hour wake for ex-tavern keeper Chet Feight. Then someone asked the cause of Feight's death.

They called the Feight residence in Berkeley:

"How did Mr. Feight meet his death?"

"You mean I am dead," asked an astonished Feight.

The boys in the back room went home.

Sunday at the Churches

DAILY DEVOTIONS
DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

Heaven's choicest gift to those who would reveal Christ to a lost world, is a divine tenderness and genuineness of spirit. Such tenderness was the outstanding characteristic of the Christ and is the very essence of the gospel. It mellows the will, softens the judgment, refines the manners, and stamps man as a product of God. This tenderness is to the Christian what rhythm is to poetry, color to art, harmony to music and fragrance to the flower. It is the clearest evidence of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, and those who possess it need never seek the "sign" gifts for they are not needed. It was this spirit that made St. John the most beloved disciple of Jesus, and to him he left in his care, his own beloved mother. But this tenderness of spirit cannot come till God makes our life a constant pageant of triumph in Christ. Here is where many Christians fail: they are not willing to give themselves to God that He may do with them as He wishes. A life of constant victory over sin will be ours when Christ has perfect control. No man can really be strong and pure and good, without the world being better for it. Amen.

France, Britain to Quit China, Rumor

SHANGHAI, June 7.—(AP)—Rumors that Great Britain and France are considering virtual abandonment of their interests here and elsewhere in China tonight caused a visible tightening of police precautionary measures in Shanghai's foreign controlled areas.

The outstanding tale in this talk—all denied by representatives of the nations involved—was that Americans were negotiating to take over the French concession.

The French concession has a population of 1,000,000, mostly Chinese, about one third that of the international settlement, which is administered by nine foreign municipal councilors, including two Americans, and five Chinese. Some 4,000 Americans reside in the two areas.

Japanese both here and in Tokyo seemed inclined to take the story of the French-American negotiations seriously. American and French authorities, however, informed the local Japanese consul-general that the report was not true and that no such action was anticipated.

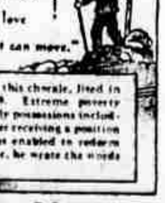
"IF THOU BUT SUFFER GOD TO GUIDE THEE"
*George Neumark

"If thou but suffer God to guide thee,
And hope in Him through all thy ways!
He'll give thee strength, whate'er betide thee,
And bear thee through the evil days;
Who trusts in God's unchanging love
Builds on the Rock that naught can move."



*George Neumark, the author of this chorale, lived in Hamburg, Germany, about 1650. Extreme poverty forced him to pawn all his earthly possessions including his cherished violoncello. Later receiving a position as Ambassador to Sweden, he was enabled to redeem his 'cello. Thankful for this favor, he wrote the words and music for this chorale.
