Proposed Ouster Of Bridges Rapped

Deportation Bill is Violation of American Traditions, Says Atty. Gen. Jackson.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Attorney General Jackson expressed "emphatic disapproval" today of a bill for the deportation of Harry Bridges, west coast CIO leader.

In a letter to Senator Russell (D., Ga.) Jackson said that if the bill, which the house approved by an overwhelming vote, were to become law it would be "an historical departure from an unbroken American practice and tradition."

The bill was introduced by Representative Allen (D., La.) It is designed solely to bring about deportation of Bridges, against whom charges of communism pending a long time until he was cleared as the result of an extensive hearing conducted by Dean James M. Landis of the Harvard law school, who acted in on behalf of the labor department.

Russell asked Jackson's views on the measure. "It would be the first time," the attorney general replied, "that congress, without changing the general law, simply suspended all laws which protect a named individual and directed the attorney general to disregard and forthwith to deport 'notwithstanding any other provision of law.'"

"And it would be the first time since the alien and sedition laws a century and a half ago that any law would provide for deportation without a hearing and without, indeed, the slightest pretense toward giving the accused what our nation has long known as 'due process of law.'"

"The extraordinary character of this bill upon its face is even more impressively viewed against its background," Jackson continued. "This same alien has been accused, investigated and tried at great length, and judgment has been rendered that he had not been proved guilty of the charges made against him. By this bill, the United States would deny faith and credit to its own duly conducted legal proceedings."

Bridges, long resident in this country as an alien, is a native of Australia. "Opposes 'Martyr' Making" Jackson declared that the bill would provide for "the first deportation in which the alien was not even accused either of unlawful entry or of unlawful conduct while here."

"Harry Bridges may be all that this bill implies of him," Jackson declared. "But certainly, he does not deserve a place in our history as a martyr. He is insignificant compared to the issues presented by this bill. Our forefathers objected to a government 'whatsoever' the prince had the force of law." The report of the house committee comes close to reverting to this when it says that deportation "with out assigning any reason is inherent and asserted by this bill."

"As an American, I would not, for the sake of our own liberty, deny the protection of uniform and indiscriminate laws, and of fair hearings to even the humblest or meanest of men. As an official of the United States, I cannot in good conscience do other than recommend strongly against this bill."

James T. Young was elected commander of Umpqua post of the American Legion at the annual election meeting held Tuesday.

While the local post holds its elections in June, the officers do not assume their posts until the September meeting. The election is held, however, prior to the state convention, in order that the incoming officers may be in a position to include in their outlined program any suggestions arising from the convention. The officers will be installed immediately following the summer recess, at a joint ceremony with the auxiliary.

U. S. Agent at Vatican, Myron Taylor, Gravely Ill

ROME, June 20.—(AP)—The condition of Myron C. Taylor, President Roosevelt's representative to the Vatican, was described last night by attendants as serious, but not alarming. The illness, ascribed partly to overwork, has kept him in bed at his villa in Florence.

OUT OUR WAY

Red Cross Chapter Wants Garments

A request for public assistance for the production department of the American Red Cross was voiced today by Mrs. Bess Coleman, chairman. There are many ways in which the women of the county may be of great help to the department in sewing, knitting, crocheting, etc., Mrs. Coleman stated. The department has a quota for the following articles: Sweaters for men, women and children, black, white, dresses for women and girls, layettes, bonnets, suits or dresses for children under six years of age, hospital shirts, operating gowns, easel-neck robes, aprons, etc. Several groups and individuals already have given valuable assistance to the department, it is stated, in completing garments, but additional services can be used.

Sewing materials also are badly needed and any donations of remnants, Mrs. Coleman states, will be gratefully received. Among some of the things needed, she reports, are patterns of 1929 and 1940 styles, any size; unlined pieces of material that will make dresses of the warmer types in lengths of 1 1/2 yards or more; also unused material suitable for collars and cuffs, such as silk, rayon, lace, etc.; partly used spools of thread, bias tape, taffeta binding, rick-rack braid, pale blue or pink embroidery floss, linen or cotton tape, half yard or longer; balls of yarn, any color; snaps, black and white, any size; buttons, bell buckles or clips; pieces of old and soft linen, six inches square or more.

The Jones Furniture company has installed a large box, marked with a red cross, into which donations of materials may be dropped.

DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

The attitude of the three Hebrew young men in the midst of a pagan and corrupt court and in the presence of a king as powerful as Nebuchadnezzar constitutes in our age and time both a challenge and an inspiration. Our faith is being put to a test; the quality of the Christian faith is being defined. Some of us are exhibiting a very weak faith, but there are many others who are lifting high the challenge of the Hebrew young men of ancient times, and they are manifesting before the mighty leaders of this world a faith which is superb and vigorous. It is time that we affirm our confidence in God, and it is time that we speak to those of little faith as did these young men of profound religious conviction when they boldly asserted their faith in God, viz., "Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us." Centuries have not lessened the power of God. He is still able to keep that which we have committed unto Him against that day, and although civilizations and kingdoms come and go, He abides forever. All whose works are truth, and his ways judgment; and those who walk in pride, he is able to abase. He is able to keep us in perfect peace, because we trust in Him, Amen.

O.S.C. Engineering School "Enlists" for Defense

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—The school of engineering will be busy this summer in a program of cooperation with the federal government on national defense, the full extent of which is not yet determined.

Already the department of mechanical engineering has been authorized to continue the pilot training course under the civil aeronautics administration. At least 50 new men will be accepted for training for a three-months period starting about June 15. These men will be provided training without cost and will be given the same work for which a charge of $40 was made this last year. The college has also responded to a request to make available the facilities of the school of engineering in an extensive training program in connection with national defense measures in mechanical warfare. It is possible that this program may also get under way this summer, although definite arrangements have not been completed, according to President G. W. Peavy.
