ROBERT BOYD AND MARIE WALKER MARRY IN EUGENE ON SUNDAY

A wedding of great interest to their many friends here, took place Sunday, June 16th, in Eugene, when Robert Boyd, of that city, and Marie Walker, of San Francisco, were married at three o'clock at the home of the bride-corum's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Boyd. Rev. Mr. Cook, pastor of the First Christian church of Eugene, performed the ceremony in the presence of about thirty-five relatives and close friends.

Shades of blue delphiniums and lilies formed a beautiful setting for the ceremony. Preceding the wedding, Don Childers, of Eugene, sang, "I Love You Truly." The wedding music was played by Bill Wharton, of Roseburg.

The bride, beautiful in a white net lace gown over taffeta with finger tip veil and a shower bouquet of sweetpeas and gardenias, was given in marriage by her brother, Leonard Walker, of San Francisco. Mrs. Leonard Walker, the mother of honor, wore blue net over taffeta and carried a nosegay of sweetpeas and rosebuds, and Miss Diane Duncan, of San Francisco, wore burgundy net over taffeta and carried a nosegay matching the mother of honor's. Donald Boyd, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, and Wayne Boyd, youngest brother of the bridegroom, was usher. The wedding guests were received by Mrs. William Unrath, of Roseburg, a sister of the bridegroom.

A reception followed, at which time the bride cut the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was decorated in pink and white. Mrs. Marie Campbell and daughter, Virginia, and Mrs. Lyle Lindley, of Eugene, assisted in serving.

For traveling the bride chose an ensemble of brown and white with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Following a honeymoon at coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd will return to Eugene to make their home.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding besides in the bridal party included the bride's mother, Mrs. Guy Jeter, of San Francisco; her grandmother, Mrs. Dyer, of Rose-
