Seattle Shuts Out Sactos in 2 Games

(By the Associated Press)
Seattle's two shut-out wins over Sacramento left the northwest team a still further standard in the Pacific coast league today, although San Diego's jump from fifth to third place took part of the limelight.
The top-running Seattle Rainiers poured it on Sacramento 11-0 in the first game last night, behind Bartlett's five-hit pitching which gave him his ninth win in 11 starts. The Rainiers hammered in seven runs in the eighth inning.
Wilkie heated Gabler in a hurling duel to give Seattle the seven-inning nightcap, 2-0. Each gave up 5 hits. The victory was Wilkie's fourth in as many games. The double def. dropped the Solons to fifth place.
San Diego's 5-3 win over the last-place Portland Beavers brought the Padres back to the first division.
Oakland took a close one from Los Angeles, 6-5. The Angels had the tying run on base in the ninth but Springer's long drive was pulled down near the fence to end the threat.
San Francisco handed Hollywood a 5-4 defeat.

Cleveland Downs Boston in Baffest

(By JUDSON BAILEY)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The Cleveland Indians are still on the American league warpath today with six consecutive scalpings to their credit, including a 7-4 prize from the Boston Red Sox in the first game of their crucial series yesterday. This was the Indians' eighth triumph in nine games since.
The Indians won under pressure from the Red Sox. The Soxers slugged Minar for 16 hits, one of them a home run in the third inning by Williams with two on and another Fox's 17th home run in the eighth.
But Cleveland, held to eight hits by Jack Wilson, kept coming and in the last of the eighth Roy Hall hit a three-run homer that provided the margin of victory.
Browns Shut Out.
One of the season's starkest individual shows was a one-hit pitching performance by Young Sid Hudson of the Washington Senators last night at St. Louis, where he ended the Browns' six-game winning string with a 1-0 shutout.
The world champion New York Yankees stopped their five-game skid to wallop the Detroit Tigers, 12-7.
