MILDRED MARIE WILL AND WESLEY TINDALL MARRY ON FRIDAY

SUTHERLIN, June 24.—A wedding ceremony was performed Friday night at 8 o'clock at the First Christian church in Salem when Mildred Marie Will, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Will, became the bride of Wesley Tindall, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tindall of Walla Walla, Wash. Rev. L. E. Oert of Pasco, Wash., officiated.

Following the ceremony Fred Bates of Salem sang, accompanied at the pipe organ by Miss Ellen Douglas of West Salem. Miss Douglas also played the wedding marches. The bride was in a white satin gown with a tulle veil, held in place by a halo of pearls. She carried a white bible with streamers and Cecil Brunner rosebuds. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Sarella Will of Jennings Lodge. Rev. Ernest Oert of Nez Perce, Idaho, acted as best man for the groom. Clyde Hammond of Roseburg, Cecil and Leonard Will were the ushers. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the adjoining church parlor. The table appointments, a complete set of crystal and gold, were a gift to the bride's grandmother on her golden wedding anniversary. For traveling the bride chose a navy blue redingote with accessories of bright red. After a short trip to Washington and Idaho the couple will leave by motor for Enid, Oklahoma, where they expect to attend school next year at Phillips university. While there the groom will hold a student pastorate at Waynoka, Oklahoma. The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon in the department of education and a member of Pi Lambda Theta honor society. During the past year she has taught English, home economics and girls athletics in the high school at Sutherlin.

Today's Pattern

VERSATILE BLOUSE AND SKIRT PATTERN 4476

by Anne Adams

Here's the neatest fashion trick of the season! Depending on your interpretation of its style, Pattern 4476 makes a demure afternoon frock... a tailored shirtwaister... or a casual country cotton. It's a two-piece button-front style designed by Anne Adams. There are back and front panels, but NO SIDE SEAMS in the skirt. The soft-cut blouse has long or short sleeves. Use a soft print, add a front ruffle to the matching or contrasting collar, and you've a dress-up costume; or try a gay cotton, with a simple collar and it becomes a country or working dress. You might make a contrasting "check-mat" of the skirt for striking effect. Pattern 4476 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16, blouse and skirt, takes 1 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 5 1/2 yard contrast. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to the News-Review, Pattern Department, Roseburg, Oregon.

usual on the school lawn. A good program will be tendered the audience, and booths will be arranged for the sale of ice-cream, cake, candy, hot-dog, coffee, punch and candy. A fish pond under the direction of Mrs. Jack Calver, Jr., and Mrs. Vera Holgate will also prove of much interest to young and old.

MISS ANNABELLE FISHER LEAVES FOR CONFERENCE

Miss Annabelle Fisher, who will teach homemaking in the Hillsboro Union high school, will be among those attending the annual state conference of homemaking teachers from June 24 to July 12. This conference, sponsored by the state board for vocational education, will be held on the Oregon State college campus and will be attended by several hundred homemaking teachers and others interested in various aspects of the program.

The purpose of the conference is to study problems which confront homemaking teachers in Oregon and to determine means by which education in this field may be improved.

Panel discussions, general discussions, class work, committee work, and joint meetings with other vocational services will comprise the activities of this group of teachers during the three weeks session.
