He has unquestionable charm and personality which he is able to project to the public through the medium of the press and the radio. This writer, who has never seen him, has felt these qualities in him as a result of reading and listening.

AS TO McNary: He is able, wise, fearless and TOLEANT. He has skilled knowledge of the intricate and in a democracy NECESSARY machinery of politics.

BRUCE BARTON is an advertising man who is now a congressman. As an advertiser and collaborator for Wilkie, he would be invaluable.

TO SAY that the Nogh Umpqua caravan was a complete success is something of an understatement. It could scarcely have been improved upon in any particular.

THE republican party is to win this election, it must convince the people of the United States that it is sincere, loyal and able to do efficiently and patriotically the big things that in the next four years must be done.

It was a fine thing to dedicate the bridge below the Halbec to A. C. Marsters. It is well known in this community that Mr. Marsters has been a leading spirit in the 50-year effort to obtain a road up the river to Diamond lake.

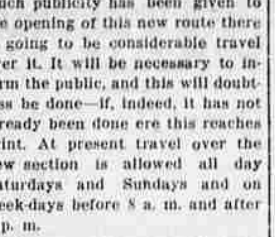

Mention has previously been made in this column of the really valiant work done by the Steamboat CCC boys. The writer of these lines made the trip through to the lake just two weeks to a day before the caravan made it so easily last Friday.

These glowing reports of the Nogh Umpqua road must not be misunderstood. The road is not a highway. It is a beautiful drive along one of the world's grandest rivers and through a wonderful forest.

Our party came home from the trek to Diamond lake over the same route. We saw many things that had not been previously noted. Apparently that trip offers many new things every time you make it.

CHAPTER XIII 'Hey boss! Hey--Rose-lee! I got something for you!'

'A man can grow a very good beard in three to five months.'

Mr. John Sawyer, formerly known as Carl Quait, No. 42283, spent almost four months growing his beard.

'Sawyer's top hair grew too; it had been cut very short in January, but by summer it was scruffy and long.'

'Um, Hi you all at once, didn't I, Sawyer?' the boss asked, curiously.

'Yes, but I got to go for a spell. I might come back later, if you need me.'

'Well, you done all right here. I'll have to put on another man now, but I could write you if you want me to, when there's another opening. Where you from? Your address? You never did give me a place, when you come here?'

'Reckon I'll be around Tucson, Arizona, matter of fact.'

Mr. Sawyer had to walk in to Kingman that night, so impatient was he. The old newspaper had disturbed him.

Next day at Kingman he bought papers from Phoenix, Albuquerque and Los Angeles. One of them was a Sunday paper again.

Injury Jinx Hits Four More Players

Jurges, Bowman, Ted Williams, Cramer Hurt; Medwick Returns, Aids in Victory.

By BILL WHITE (Associated Press Sports Writer) The argument of whether a player should dress up like one of King Arthur's armor-plated knights before stepping onto the diamond is due for its annual airing.

The coltsback had hardly cleared from Dodger Ducky Medwick's brain after being beamed by Bob Bowman of the Cards Tuesday, when Billy Jurges of the Giants was biffed yesterday by Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati staff, and Ted Williams, lanky Boston Red Sox outfielder, also suffered a concussion when he and Roster Cramer collided, while pursuing a fly ball.

The Giants, right in the thick of the National league pennant fight dropped a pair to the Reds yesterday by 7-4 and 2-0 and that dropped them back to third place while the Reds were re-mounting the throne for the sixth time.

The Red Sox lost the first game of yesterday's double bill against Cleveland, in which Williams was hurt and Cramer badly shaken by a 4-1 as Al Smith spun a shutout. They might have lost the second if it hadn't been for the homerun hitting of Jim Tabor whose two blows gave them a 2-0 victory.

Medwick's Hitting Counts. Medwick, whose "booning" last Tuesday started all this fuss, came back as a regular and led the Dodgers climb back into second place. His two timely singles kept the Pittsburgh Pirates from making off with a 13-inning afterpiece, after they managed an 8-5 win in the first game, thanks to a 16-hit attack of three Brook hurlers. The second game was finally called because of darkness with the score tied, 4-4.

Other National league doings included fine performances by two rookies, Chicago Cubs pitcher--Mooty and Ruffenberger. Mooty won the first game from the Phillies by 3-2 on a sixth and Ruffenberger took the second 7-2.

Salvo and Sullivan likewise came through a twin assignment for the Boston Bees, handing the St. Louis Cardinals their first double beating under Manager Southworth by scores of 7-5 and 10-5. Salvo pitched an eight hitter and Sullivan an eight hitter.

Bob Bowman, who beamed Medwick, was victimized himself, being spiked in the first inning of the first game by Sisti of the Bees, and forced to retire.

Tigers Traction Yankees. In the American league, Newsum won his ninth straight at the Detroit Tigers, climbed to within a race and a half of the league leader Cleveland Indians by sucking the poor old Yankees, 9-2. Newsum allowed the one-runners in only four hits while his mates got to Marva Breuer and Steve Semra for 15.

The Washington Senators and the St. Louis Browns split a rain-composed double bill, Leonard Knuckelbush led the Nats to a 12-5 win in the opener and Laubs belting the Browns to a 3-2 decision in the nightcap with a homer and a raly-tarting fifth inning double.

The Philadelphia Chicago double-header was postponed by rain.
