POET'S CORNER

ASPIRATIONS

By MALINDA ODERKIRK
As I grow old, I would have these—
For all, great sympathies,
And kindly thought.

The power to laugh,
And humor comprehend,
The gift to cheer a friend
Along the way.

A work to do,
An honest friend or two,
Cur Saviour had but few,
And was content.

And give to me
An understanding heart
From these I would not part
As I grow old.

Today's Pattern

SHIRTFROCK OR CHEERY DRESS

PATTERN 4421

Put your pride in your pockets this year. It dictates fashion! For the smartest new styles accent the pocket theme, and Pattern 4421 by Anne Adams is no exception. Those detachable pockets on the trim waistwater version are of the cash-and-carry variety and are held onto the belt by their smart buttoned flaps. There's a second, softer version of this frock (sketched in the smaller view) that omits the pockets, cuts the neckline in a square and adds gay tie-riac. Both versions have all-around shoulder yokes which may be cut on the crossgrain. And both may contrast skirts and bodices for extra dash. Here's a style you'll really need this summer.

Pattern 4421 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 4 3/8 yards 2 1/2 inch fabric.
