Today's Pattern

SLIM-LINE AFTERNOON STYLE PATTERN 4480

by Anne Adams

A look-of-quality is provocatively combined with feminine wiles to make the success-recipe of this Anne Adams frock. Just see the deftly slimming lines of Pattern 4480! A long panel goes all down the center front. Beautifully shaped side-skirt sections rise to points, slenderizing waist and hips. The sides of the bodice are very soft, with decorative shirring at the shoulders. Take your choice between revers of self-fabric and a gentle curved collar that may be in contrast (say eyelid or organdie) with half-cuffs to match. As to trim, lace edging looks charming and a flower, a ribbon bow or tie-ends are gay suggestions.

Pattern 4480 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 3 7/8 yards 39 inch fabric and 2 1/2 yards lace edging. Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Send your order to News-Review, Pattern Dept., Roseburg, Oregon.

GARDEN CLUBS HOLD JOINT MEETING

CAMAS VALLEY, June 26.—A joint meeting of the garden clubs from Marshfield and Camas Valley was held at the church Wednesday, June 19, from twelve until four o'clock. A delicious potluck lunch was served at twelve-thirty and later the meeting was turned over to the Marshfield ladies who had planned several things of interest to both clubs.

Mrs. Cronch called the meeting to order and the whole group sang "America the Beautiful." Mrs. Cronch then introduced the Marshfield club president, Mrs. John Walsh, to the group. Mrs. Walsh then introduced the speakers in turn who gave interesting talks on their different subjects. Mrs. May Brown talked on wild flowers, their names, habits and relation to cultivated flowers. Club members from the valley had brought all wild flowers available at this time of year.

Members from both clubs brought large bouquets of garden flowers which were arranged by Mrs. George Larson, who has studied flower arrangement and also has a natural talent for this pleasant work. Mrs. Larson brought several types of vases and holders for flowers which she demonstrated before the group.

Next Mrs. C. R. Hanning talked on the advantages of belonging to the federated garden club. Mrs. Hanning is the regional vice-president.

Following these talks questions were asked and answered and a social half hour enjoyed before adjournment.

Visiting club members were Mrs. John Walsh, Mrs. E. B. Gerhrke, Mrs. Isabelle Newhouse, Mrs. Ida M. McGeorge, Mrs. Vinnie Bennett, Mrs. C. R. Hanning, Mrs. E. K. Luttrell, Mrs. Jack Fortier,
