Detroit Now Atop American League

Brooklyn Dodgers Regain Lead in National; Both St. Louis Teams Cause Shake-Ups.

By JUDSON BAILEY
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Detroit Tigers ascended to the pinnacle of the American league yesterday for the first time this year, and the Brooklyn Dodgers regained the National league top rung for the seventh time.

The two St. Louis clubs took charge of yesterdays roundups. In the afternoon the Browns tamed the Cleveland Indians 5-3 and at night the Cardinals crushed the Cincinnati Reds, 4-0.

The Browns, who a few days ago bumped the Boston Red Sox out of the American league lead, seemed to get a bit of pleasure administering the same medicine to the Tigers. All St. Louis guns came on homers and Pitcher Vernon Kennedy himself decided the game with a two-run home run in the ninth inning, his second of the season.

Tigers Win on Luck.

Detroit, which had muffed opportunities to take over the lead on other occasions, booted this chance around for two hours and 37 minutes, but finally nosed out the Chicago White Sox 10-9. The Tigers were outhit 16-11 and made three errors to two.

The Cardinals' shutout of the Reds was the handiwork of McGee, who kept seven hits scattered and batted in two of his team's runs. The Cards nicked Derringer for 13 hits.

The Dodgers were ready and eager to resume the lead, plastering a 14-1 shellacking on the hapless Phillies behind the three hit pitching of Carleton.

The New York Giants, who are close enough to take control in the senior circuit if their rivals falter, lost ground as the Boston Bees banged out a 5-3 triumph.

Two Hurlers Come Back.

It was a day for pitching comebacks. Bill Lee, the big gun of the Cubs, shut out the Pittsburgh Pirates 10-0 on five hits.

Lefty Gomez, who hasn't made a pitching appearance in the American league since April 19, went to the mound at Washington and was effective for seven innings to help the New York Yankees to a 6-2 decision over the Senators, who made five errors the same as on Monday. Joe DiMaggio accounted for four of New York's 14 hits.

The Boston Red Sox, who are within striking distance of the lead in the junior loop, divided a double header with the Philadelphia Athletics. Heusser beat them in the first game 4-3, but Foxx and Cronin hit homers in the nightcap and Boston triumphed 15-9, scoring eight runs in the first two innings.

Marshfield Juniors Defeat Medford, 6 to 4

In the first of the series of games for the district Legion Junior baseball championship, Marshfield Sunday defeated Medford, 6 to 4, in a game played at Marshfield. The Coos Bay team will go to Medford July 4 for a doubleheader.

The Douglas county Juniors will play three games with each of the other two contending teams, and the title will go to the team having the highest percentage in the series.

New Enlistment Class in Naval Reserve Opened

A new class of enlisted men in the naval reserve has been established for the procurement of prospective candidates for appointment as midshipman in the U. S. naval reserve, it was announced in word received today from the navy recruiting station in Portland.

Acceptable candidates will be enlisted as apprentice seamen in a special class and thereafter will be placed on active duty and transferred to a naval ship for training. Upon completion of the cruise, those candidates recommended by the commanding officer of the cruising ship will be issued appointments as midshipmen in the naval reserve.

Satisfactory completion of the three months' course of instruction will qualify the midshipmen for commission as an ensign in the reserve. Thereafter, in time of peace, his service and promotion in the reserve will depend on his activities.

Hub's Indians defeated the National Guard 5 to 2 in the first of the two softball games played last night at Finley field. In the second game the Elks Club defeated Sutherlin 11 to 4.

Both the Indians and Guardsmen collected seven hits, but five errors by the Guardsmen made the difference in scores. Morgan was booted from the game in the first inning when he threw his bat in a fit of anger over what he thought was a bad decision.

Campbell, pitching for the Indians, struck out four Guardsmen, while Poet, the soldier pitcher, had three strikeouts to his credit. Hayes took top batting honors for the Guardsmen, getting one for two, and Burt and Goodman led the Indians with two for four.

The Elks Club, by virtue of its one-sided win over Sutherlin moved into a tie for fourth place. Creason held Sutherlin to one hit, a double by Harvey, while his mates pounded Rountree and Mardin for 11 safeties.

Robertson and Stevenson led the hitting attack for the Elks, each pounding out three hits for five times at bat.

In the last of the fourth inning, two errors and a fielders choice permitted the one run which robbed Creason of a shutout.

Summer Program at Baptist Church Planned

A very interesting and full program is planned for the summer at the First Baptist church of Roseburg, it was announced today. Among the special features to be presented will be a sermon Sunday, July 21, by the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, jr., pastor of the First Baptist church of Glendale, Calif. Dr. Brougher will address a meeting of men on Friday evening, July 26, at which time he will give his popular lecture, "Play Ball." He also will preach at both services Sunday, July 2?, and will give a public lecture Monday, July 29, on "Will Rogers and the Philosophy of Good Humor."

Shipmate Bob and a part of his crew of the "Good Ship Grace" will visit Roseburg Friday evening, Aug. 2, and will hold services at the Baptist church.

In connection will the midweek service at the local church tonight, Pastor H. P. Sconce reports there will be a brief business meeting.

Will Visit in Ashland—Mrs. E. O. Rickli and son, Jack, of this city, are leaving in the morning for Ashland to spend a couple of days visiting the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Kramer.

Willkie Names 12 Campaign Heads

NEW YORK, July 2.—(AP)—Republican Presidential Nominee Wendell Willkie named a 12-member campaign advisory committee today headed by Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota.

He said the committee would function throughout his campaign regardless of what the final composition of his campaign personnel and strategy might be.

Willkie invited these party leaders and those instrumental in his nomination to serve as his principal advisors:

Representative Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, minority leader of the house; Gov. Raymond Baldwin of Connecticut; David S. Ingalls, Cleveland, Ohio, lawyer; Representative Charles Halleck of Indiana; Governor Ralph Carr of Colorado; Ruth Hanna McCormick Simms of New Mexico, co-manager of District Attorney Thomas E. Dewey's campaign for the republican nomination; Paul Kruse, chairman of the Tennessee delegation to the Philadelphia convention; Oren Root, Jr., New York attorney and early worker in the Willkie campaign; Mrs. Ruth De Young Koehler, of Wisconsin; William Ditter, chairman of the republican house of representatives campaign committee; Senator John Townsend of Delaware, chairman of the senatorial campaign committee.

Clinton Golden, regional chief of the steel workers organizing committee.

Railroad—A. Johnston, locomotive engineers; Charles J. McGowan, boilermakers vice president; A. E. Lyon, signalman, and S. J. Hogan, president of the marine engineers beneficial association.

Baer Victor Over Galento in Seventh

Overweight Tony, Exhausted by Slugfest Pace, Forced to Yield Decision.

By GAYLE TALBOT

JERSEY CITY, July 3.—(AP)—Two tired, fat old fighting men slugged each other into a state of utter exhaustion out on the Jersey marshes last night, and finally one of them, Tony Galento, was unable to go on any longer.

The fat tavern keeper was sitting on his stool, blowing blood like a harpooned whale, when the bell rang to start the eighth round. His handlers wouldn't let him go out, so the referee raised Max Baer's hand. It went into the books as a technical knockout in the eighth.

The fight—and it was a hard one while it lasted—proved only that there isn't a heavyweight in the world worthy of challenging Joe Louis for the championship.

Baer, exuberant in his dressing room afterward, was shouting his defiance of Louis and demanding another shot at the big negro to whom he once surrendered while on his knees. But Max is about six years too late. If he is smart, he will challenge Louis from the housetops now, but not get into the ring with him.

Max Lacks Old Fire.

Max fought about as brainy a fight last night as one would hope to see. He took his time, dodged Galento's mighty lunges, and steadily punched the fat man into a state bordering on helplessness. But, even so, he did not look like a fighter to face the Louis thunderbolts. He looked old in the face, and without fire.

Tony, who had been a solid favorite, found the handicap of 24½ pounds of fat and a barroom cut on his chin too much.

The surplus pounds slowed him to where he was awkward in the clinches and a sucker for Baer's sharp blasts. The cut, administered originally by a beer glass pegged by his brother, opened up round by round until finally he was choking and blowing froth.

Tony said he had broken his left hand in the second round. Taat, on the Associated Press score card, was the only round Galento won. The other six belonged to Baer.

A crowd of 22,711 paid $98,604 to watch the two veterans slug and butt each other and grimace like a couple of wrestlers.

Oakland, Seattle Win Ball Games

By the Associated Press

Oakland fans, who still have faith that the rejuvenated Oaks can overtake the Seattle Coast league pennant defenders, were jubilant today over a tenth-inning, 6 to 5, victory over San Francisco.

Only two Hollywood players got their bats in front of Lee Stine's throws as Los Angeles stopped the Stars 5 to 1.

Outfielder Mandish cracked out a homer in the eighth to spoil Stine's chance of making his 11th win a shut-out. Cissell, Hollywood second baseman, got two singles.

The Angels' "Flippers" Collins set off the Angel scoring in the sixth with his 11th homer of the season.

A free-hitting game at San Diego gave Sacramento an 8 to 3 win and boosted the Sacs back into the first division from which they plummeted two weeks ago. They replaced Hollywood in fourth position.

Portland tightened its hold on the cellar with a 7 to 0 loss to the league-leading Rainiers at Seattle.

The Beavers tagged along one run behind for six innings, and four times got two men on base. With unfailing regularity they hit into double plays, donating a shut-out to Barrett for his 11th victory.

In the seventh the Portlanders gave up four runs on Second Baseman Niemiec's triple, three singles, a walk and a wild pitch.

Woman 5th Columnist Gets 10 Years in Prison

LONDON, July 2—(AP)—Mrs. Marie Louisa Augusta Ingram, German-born wife of a royal air force sergeant, was convicted today of conspiring to break defense regulations.

She was sentenced to 10 years in prison.

William Swift, accused with her of trying to obtain arms to protect enemy invaders, was sentenced to 14 years imprisonment. Archibald Watts was acquitted.

Mrs. Ingram, who was quoted by police as having said that Adolf Hitler would make Sir Oswald Mosley, imprisoned leader of British fascists, the boss of Britain, was acquitted of an additional charge of having plotted to obtain blueprints of a British tank.

She and Swift, leaders in the fascist union, were accused of "endeavoring to cause disaffection" among British soldiers.

Driver Examiner Dates Special Sutherlin Stop

A special stop will be made at Sutherlin, from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Tuesday, July 9, by examiners from the state motor vehicle department, it was announced today. Ward McReynolds, examiner for the southern Oregon district, who visits Roseburg on Tuesday of each week, stated today that arrangements have been made to conduct examinations next week at Sutherlin as well as at Roseburg. Persons in that area desiring permits or licenses to drive automobiles are invited by Mr. McReynolds to call at the city hall in Sutherlin next Tuesday for examinations.
