

Dodgers, Indians Top Major Leagues

Tigers Ousted From American Lead in 11-Inning Game; Cincinnati Wins Twice.

By JERISON BAILEY (Associated Press Sports Writer)

It was a safe and sure fourth of July in the major leagues.

All the prospects broke out, leaving the Brooklyn Dodgers and Cleveland Indians scattered at the top of the National and American leagues and eager to prove the truth of that old saying about the Independence day tradition of storming the pentagon.

All they have to do now is starve the big boys.

The largest baseball in use in the history of the game, 27,563, fabled Briggs stadium to whom and ground the Indians and Tigers divided a doubleheader.

Briggs pitched the Tigers temporarily into first place in the first game with a 5-2 triumph on five hits. York Joppe hit with a two-run homer off lefty Al Smith.

But in the second game the Indians squeezed out a thrilling 2-1 victory in eleven innings to regain the lead. Until the ninth this was a southpaw struggle between Miller and Newhouse. The Tigers loaded the bases and got the tying run in the ninth. In the eleventh two singles sandwiched around a sacrifice scored the winning run.

Dodgers Down Giants.

The Brooklyn Dodgers romped like champions over the New York Giants 5-1 and 6-1 in a double feature at the Polo grounds.

Curt Davis parried off seven batters in the Giants in winning the opener. Medwick hit his third home run in three days and Catcher Phelps hit two.

In the second game Tamule came to the front with a three-hit performance. He had a perfect game for seven innings and by the time he gave up three hits and a run in the eighth the Dodgers at ready had hammered out 15 hits and all their runs.

This gave Brooklyn a sweep of the three game series with New York and showed the Giants five games behind the lead.

Cincy Wins Twice.

The champion Cincinnati Reds refused to yield any ground. Walter stepped to the mound in the first game against the Pittsburgh Pirates and ripped off his 11th victory 9-1. Then Thompson won the eighth with a three-hit show that submerged the Pirates 2-1.

The other National league doubleheaders were divided. The Chicago Cubs stopped the Cardinals 4-3 in the first game. Shoun evaded the score for St. Louis with a five-hit 5-2 success in the after-piece. He fanned nine.

Marty's pinch single with the bases loaded and the score tied in the ninth inning gave the Phillies a 4-3 verdict over Boston, but the Bees battled back in the second game to win 5-4 with Stutz hitting a homer for what turned out to be the deciding run.

Yanks Defeat Boston.

The New York Yankees paraded back into the American league pennant picture again by blasting out a double victory over the Boston Red Sox, 12-4 and 7-3.

In the first game the Yankees packed five home runs into their total of 11 hits and in the second game they got three more. Keller, Gordon and Rosen each had two for the day.

The sport of the St. Louis Browns was shut off at Chicago, where the White Sox took two games 7-3 and 8-5.

The Washington Senators worked their way out of the American league cellar by beating the Philadelphia Athletics twice, 6-1 and 9-5.

CORRECT! I JUST GOT A BARGAIN PRICE ON A LOAD OF COAL, AND THE BLACK HORSE INDICATES YOU ARE GOING TO HAUL IT INTO THE CELLAR—THE WEAPON YOU WERE FLOURISHING WAS A SHOVEL, AND THE REINS REMIND ME THAT A SHOWER IS COMING, SO GET MOVING!

HE'S SORRY NOW HE BROUGHT IT UP.

University of Oregon Students to Lead Meeting in Roseburg Tonight

Without leaving Oregon, Student Body President Tiger Payne (seated in rear) and Federation Director Roy Verstrom (left) will cover ten thousand miles of road this summer presenting programs on the University of Oregon. They are being "honored" by Elmer Fassett, annual secretary. Payne and Verstrom will lead an Oregon meeting in Roseburg at 8 o'clock this evening at the chamber of commerce.

Mineral, prospective students and undergraduates of Oregon live in the Roseburg region have already been notified of the meeting. This program will also include a discussion of campus living accommodations, activities and problems of the university. The two student leaders have been traveling since the middle of June through several sections of the state. They will have contacted more than 60 communities by the close of this summer.

Payne and Verstrom are self-sufficient students who have maintained high scholastic records and are energetic in outside activities at the university. Harry Ellsworth, editor of the Roseburg News-Review, is Douglas county alumni director for the University of Oregon graduates in this vicinity are urged by him to attend the meeting.

Takes Wrong Job

CHICAGO—George Lundgren, 29, of Aurora, is going to leave deeper changes to the women folk from now on.

He placed an open safety pin in his mouth preparatory to putting a diaper on his one-year-old daughter, Florence Jane. When the baby squirmed Lundgren swallowed the pin.

Relieved of the pin, Lundgren expects to leave the hospital today.

Seattle, Oakland Win Twin Games

Hal Turpin Posts 15th Victory of Season; San Diego Also Triumphs in Doubleheader.

(By the Associated Press)

Today's workmanlike results of yesterday's doubleheaders in the Pacific coast league proved that Seattle and Oakland, who won both ends of their doubleheaders against Portland and San Francisco, respectively, will probably have to fight it out between themselves for the pennant.

At Seattle the Rainier gladiators made it four straight over the cellar-situated Portland Beavers. The scores were 6 to 3 and 6 to 2.

Pitcher Hal Turpin won his 15th game in the first game, as did the Beavers' Speer, but the Rainiers won the game on a platter.

At Oakland the Oaks blasted San Francisco by 12 to 5 and 5 to 7 scores.

The Seattle young hopeful, Larry Powell, did not last three innings before the Oakland first-game onslaught. His relief, Jensen, let the Oaks score five runs in the seventh inning and three in the eighth.

In the second game the Seals lost a short-lived 2-to-1 lead in the sixth, but promptly blew it. The Oaks made four hits and two errors good for three runs.

Leadership of the second division may not be much to fight over, but Hollywood and Los Angeles, with 49 and 45 percent wins, respectively, were playing for keeps as they split their doubleheader. The Stars took the first game 2 to 1, the Angels the second 6 to 0.

San Diego climbed back into third place after a one-day absence, by taking both ends of a doubleheader from Sacramento 6 to 4 and 4 to 1. They banished the series at two-all.

Alice Hanley, Native of Douglas County, Dies

MEKORD, Ore., July 5.—(AP)—Miss Alice Hanley, 82, a widely known southern Oregon pioneer, died here Wednesday last following a paralysis stroke of ten days' duration.

Miss Hanley was born in Douglas county, near Kibbie, but at an early age her parents moved to the Rogue river valley and settled near Jacksonville. She spent all her days there. She led an active life and managed a large farm. She was regarded as one of the best posted persons on early Jacksonville and Jackson county history. She was one of the founders of the Southern Oregon Pioneer society.

Among the survivors are Ed H. Hanley, a brother of Seattle, Wash. She was also a sister of the late William Hanley of Burns, Ore.
