INTERESTING PROGRAM ON TEMPERANCE AND MISSIONS GIVEN

The Roseburg W.C.T.U. presented a program on "Temperance and Missions," at the Methodist church at their last meeting when the various missionary groups were guests of the union. The union has been a Light Line union for the past ten years. The requirements are sending five dollars and the Union Signal magazine, which is the national official organ of the organization, to a foreign missionary for a year. Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin is state director of the temperance and mission department and she reported many new Light Line unions for this year.

Mrs. Adair led the devotional period, stressing the scriptural passage, "The harvest truly is great but the laborers are few."

Mrs. C. A. Edwards quoted news of the work in foreign lands which revealed many encouraging facts. Mrs. G. W. Leeper, Mrs. Adair and Miss Edith Staggs gave facts regarding Light Lines "Who, Where and When." "Lines That Shine" was a candle lighting ceremony carried out by Mrs. Adair, Miss Edith Staggs, Mrs. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. C. W. Groves and Mrs. Earl Agee. Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin gave the Light Line creed.

Refreshments were served by the committee, Mrs. Alice Groves, chairman, Miss Karene Larsen, Mrs. M. E. Ritter and Mrs. Hugh Harrison.

The July 24th meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. H. Wilson at Umpqua. A picnic dinner will be served at one o'clock. The committee appointed for the dinner is Mrs. Busenbark, chairman, Mrs. J. H. Large Reception Given Rev. and Mrs. Wire

News-Review Photo and Engraving

One of the largest and most charming social events of the week was given by the Methodists in the beautiful garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters on South Kane street, when Rev. and Mrs. M. T. Wire were honored at a reception. About one hundred and thirty members of the church and their friends called to enjoy the affair.

Rev. Mr. Wire was recently sent to Roseburg from Ashland to act as pastor of the Methodist church in place of Dr. Louis Magin, who retired and has moved with his wife to New York to be near their two sons.

Mrs. R. L. Whipple, president of the Methodist ladies aid society, acted as general chairman of the reception. Mrs. Roscoe Marsters welcomed the guests at the door and receiving were Rev. and Mrs. Wire, guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Marsters, Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. Roy Catching and Mrs. J. D. Osborn.

The serving table, which was in charge of Mrs. Harvie W. Booth and Mrs. A. J. Ellison, was decorated with a large center bouquet of multi-colored scabiosa and flanked on each side by three smaller bowls of summer flowers. Large baskets of gladioli were used about the garden and in the rooms of the home.

L. E. Goodbourn acted as toastmaster and group singing of "God Bless America" was led by Miss Betty Marsters. Talks were given by Dr. Morris H. Roach, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Perry Smith, of St. George's Episcopal church; Rev. John A. Barney, of the Christian church; Rev. H. P. Sconce, of the Baptist church; Dr. James McClintock, of Madison, New Jersey; response by Rev. M. T. Wire; prayer by Dr. Charles A. Edwards, and group singing led by Mrs. Earl Wiley.

Mrs. A. J. Geddes was in charge of the refreshment committee and was assisted by Mrs. E. A. Britton, Mrs. E. C. Jones, Mrs. William Adair and Mrs. R. L. Whipple.

Mrs. John M. Raish and Mrs. Kenneth Ford cut ices and were assisted in serving by Miss Lucia Britton, Miss Betty Marsters, Miss Elaine Fett and Miss Evelyn Wiley. Miss Betty Mae Whipple presided at the punch bowl. The girls assisting with the affair wore pastel-colored summer formals.

Marry on Tuesday Morning

Mr. and Mrs. Alba LaVern Spaugh, Jr.

Miss Kathleen Patricia Riegel, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin H. Riegel, of 244 Commercial avenue, Roseburg, and Alba LaVern Spaugh, son of Alba Spaugh, Sr., of this city, were quietly married at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning, July 9, at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, performed the impressive ring ceremony in the presence of the bride's parents and the bridegroom's father.

A pretty setting was arranged for the ceremony by the use of baskets of pink and white gladioli, ivy and standards holding tall white cathedral candles. The bride was attractive in a black sheer frock fashioned with a bolero jacket trimmed in large lapels. Her hat, a large off-the-face model, was white starched pique. At the throat, she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Spaugh left for Lake Stevens, Wash., where the bridegroom is engaged by a popular band of musicians, which will spend the summer months playing engagements in Seattle, Victoria, B. C., Spokane, Salt Lake City and California cities.

The bride and bridegroom are both popular members of Roseburg's younger set. They were both graduated from Roseburg high school in the class of 1937. The bride attended Behnke-Walker Business college in Portland and has been employed in the agricultural conservation office here until the time of her marriage.

Mr. Spaugh, a member of Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, is a senior at University of Oregon.

On Sunday, July 7, the bride and bridegroom-elect were honored at a very delightful no-host nine o'clock breakfast in the Civic club room of the Hotel Umpqua. The white linen covered table was centered with a large wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom cake containing fortunes and favors for the guests. Pastel-colored streamers were arranged from the cake to favor baskets at each cover. Pastel-colored gladioli buds encircled the centerpiece, while huge baskets of gladioli were used about the room.

Mrs. George Wilson Bacher poured and the guest of honor cut the wedding cake. Beautiful gifts were presented to the two guests of honor, who later served treats to the guests.

Covers were placed for the bride and bridegroom-elect and Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson Bacher, Miss Vivian Bartley, Miss Virginia Rogers, of Lookingglass, Miss Kathryn Busenbark, Knute Kershner, Durward Owens and Jack Bathrick.

During the breakfast hour the honored guests announced their marriage date for Tuesday morning, July 9.
