Marry at Methodist Church

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sonneborn.

Mrs. Nebula Roadman, of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roadman, of Umpqua, and Horace Sonneborn, of Portland, son of Mrs. Anna Sonneborn, of Los Angeles, were married at a beautiful service at four o'clock Thursday, July 11, at the Methodist church. Dr. Charles A. Edwards performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of about twenty close friends and relatives.

A large bowl of gladoli, Shasta daisies and baby's breath centered the altar, which was flanked by matching bouquets. A white sofa prayer pillow was arranged in front of the altar.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Vera McClintock Jones sang "Because" by D'Hardelet and at the close of the ceremony sang "I Love You Truly" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Mrs. Gordon Stewart, organist, played Lohengrin's Wedding Processional for the bridal party to enter the church; "Oh Promise Me" during the ceremony and at the close of the service played Mendelssohn's Recessional March.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very attractive in a navy blue, eyelet embroidered organza afternoon frock, fashioned with a full skirt and a gathered waistline fastened in front with a bow. Thin pin ruffles outlined the neck and puffed sleeves. She wore a large navy blue picture hat banded with a white ribbon and a shoulder corsage of carnations. Her accessories were blue and white.

Mrs. Ted Roadman, as matron of honor, wore a royal blue flowered chiffon afternoon frock with navy blue picture hat and blue and white accessories. The bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore blue and white ensembles.

Ted Roadman, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held in the attractive garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roadman in Edgewater. The serving table, covered by a beautiful lace cloth over pink, was centered by a large tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom and flanked by tall white tapers. The cake was cut by the bride and groom. The bride and groom were served by Mrs. Arthur Roadman, Mrs. D. E. Hennigh, Mrs. Nancy Fitzsimmons, Miss Mary Walter and Mrs. Ted Roadman.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roadman, of Umpqua; Mrs. Anna Sonneborn, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary Price, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Lulu Gornell, of Sutherlin; Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Edwards, Mrs. D. E. Hennigh, Mrs. F. H. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Miss Mary Walter, R. D. Black, Mrs. Nancy Fitzsimmons, Tommy Atkins, Vera McClintock Jones, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Mrs. Margaret Kruson, Mrs. James Metz and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Roadman and daughter, Sharon Lee.

The bride was graduated from the Sutherlin high school and for the last few years has owned and operated Marion's Beauty shop in Roseburg. Mr. Sonneborn was graduated from University of California at Los Angeles and is a factory representative for the Beauty Products, Inc., of Portland. Following a wedding trip to coast points, Mr. and Mrs. Sonneborn will go to Portland to make their home.
