Boucock's Butchers took undisputed possession of first place in the City Softball league last night by defeating Dunham's Transfermen, 6 to 5.

Hub's Indians took a 4 to 0 lead in the first two innings of the double-header, but Sutherland came back with two tallies in the third and two in the fifth to tie the score.

The Indians, however, pushed three runs across the plate in the last of the sixth, and then halted a Sutherland rally, one run short of a tie, after two runs had scored in the seventh inning.

Campbell, pitching for the Indians, allowed eight hits, gave up six walks and had four strikeouts.

Ellison started for Sutherland, allowing five hits and yielding one walk. Hoyt, who succeeded Ellison on the mound, was rapped for two hits, gave two passes and three strikeouts.

Both teams were jittery at the start and the Transfermen made two costly errors, which, coupled with wildness on the part of Laurence, who gave two walks and a hit, resulted in three tallies for the Butchers in the first frame.

Boucock's home run, had a bad inning in the third frame, when two errors put runners on first and second, both scoring on a double by Henry. Henry went to third on Fred Schermer's single and stole home when the plate was left unguarded momentarily, tying the score at 2 to 2.

Dunham's went out in front in the first half of the sixth inning on singles by Bill Schermer, Pin Laurence and Sid Donlin, but the Butchers came back in their half of the inning with three runs to win the game 6 to 5 when Boucock walked, Miles and Muncy singled, Shinn and Radigan were walked and Meyers singled.

The inning resulted in some beautiful plays, one of which was a throw by Henry to the plate to cut off Muncy scoring from third after the catch of Pengra's high fly into left field.

Henry, with two hits, a double and a single, in four trips to the plate, ranked as the outstanding hitter. Fred Schermer gathered the singles out during the first and second. Boucock with two for three led the seven-hit assault by the Butchers.

Call to National Guard Awaiting Congress "Yes"
"Ready and willing" to go on active service "today, tomorrow, or at any time"
The army chief of staff, General George C. Marshall, gave his views on the subject to a senate military committee, saying that he favored mobilizing the entire guard "immediately" for training.

Congress will be asked to grant the president the partial mobilization authority as soon as it reconvenes July 22. Under existing law, the president can call out the guard only to meet a threatened

Invasion or to deal with insurrection or disorder.

The house already has pending a bill which would empower the chief executive to use the guard under other defense circumstances. This was introduced after he requested such authority in his May 31 message and, although the house military committee recommended its passage June 16, no move has been made to call it up for a vote.

Training in modern, mechanized warfare will be given, the White House announced, to seven anti-aircraft regiments of the guard—a third of the guard's strength in that field—and to an undetermined number of harbor defense regiments.

Oregon Unit Included
Stephen Early, presidential secretary, said that upon completion of the training of the first four guard divisions it would be determined whether the government should undertake to expand this training to other guard organizations.

Early said he could not say how long a training period would be provided, or the exact number of guardsmen involved, but that the president and Stimson had said they had received reports that "the overwhelming majority of the guardsmen themselves desire this training."

One division, to be trained, as Mr. Roosevelt and his war secretary planned it, will come from units in New York and New Jersey, a second from Tennessee and the Carolinas, a third from New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arizona and Colorado and the fourth from Oregon, Washington, Montana and Idaho.

Early was unable to say which anti-aircraft and harbor defense regiments would be chosen for the initial training.

Japs Dissatisfied With Marine Officer's Reply
SHANGHAI, July 12.—(AP)—Col. Desmit Peck, United States marine commander in the Shanghai district, was reported today by the Japanese news service Domei to have "failed to give a satisfactory reply" to a complaint of Major General Miura against treatment of 14 Japanese plainclothesmen arrested July 7.

Colonel Peck and General Miura conferred two hours, Domei said, and the Japanese officer expressed "the strong attitude of Japan."

The Japanese assert that the plainclothesmen, arrested in the Shanghai defense area by American marines and held for five hours, were maltreated.

Suspected Bomb Found At New Jersey School

NEW YORK, July 12.—(AP)—Acting Lieut. James Pyke, of the police bomb squad said today he was convinced a low-explosive apparatus found at a school in Union City, N. J., was "an infernal machine."

Pyke said the apparatus, brought here for investigation, included a clock mechanism by the same company which produced the one used in the bomb which killed two detectives and injured five at the New York World's fair July 4. Preliminary investigation, however, revealed nothing of an explosive nature.

It was found on the steps of the Hebrew school, adjacent to the North Hudson Jewish community center at Union City.

Police removed the box, eight inches square, to an empty lot near the school and placed it in an isolation until the New York police arrived. The ticking stopped after a half hour.

Three families of 21 persons were moved from a house next to the vacant lot.

British Increase Army, Down Five More Planes

The loss of three planes in the latest of those raids later the ministry reported that three German aircraft were destroyed by British fighters off the southeast coast last night and today had pounded naval bases at Kloten and Kiel and objectives in the Rhineland.

Youth Removal Halted.
The ministry of information announced officially last night that the scheduled removal of British children to places of safety in the dominions and the United States had been "postponed."

In explanation, the announcement said that "owing to the great demands now made upon the admiralty there are not sufficient naval vessels available for convoy duty."

However, the government made clear that "children sent apart from the government's scheme will be allowed to leave either at their parents' risk or at the risk of voluntary associations which have arranged for their transport."

The Italian high command claimed notable successes as British and Italy lashed away at each other on land, sea and in the air today in their fight for control of the Mediterranean and supremacy in Africa.

A naval engagement that started in the Mediterranean five days ago still is going on, the Italian command said, with Italy's bombers peppering British ships with bombs. They scored hits on a battleship and two cruisers yesterday, said the communique.

Hitler Mum on Plans

The unbroken pattern of German air attack on Britain, intensive bombing raids and an attempted "starvation blockade," left the world wondering today when the "real" onslaught will come, but only Adolf Hitler knows the answer, and he is not telling.

However, Louis P. Lochner, Associated Press bureau chief in Berlin, pointed out today that the blitzkrieg against Britain would come only when Hitler has convinced himself that the ground is thoroughly prepared.

Germany, Lochner reported, describe the present air war against Britain as mere "child's play" in comparison with what is yet to come, and they are so confident of victory that they are moving thousands of troops eastward away from England.

In the topsy-turvy Balkans a major development was the report that Rumania, ever since and more to the Rome-Berlin axis, would withdraw from the Balkan entente unless Turkey turns out her officials who engineered the alliance with Britain and France.

Jack Major, nationally popular stage and radio star, will attend a 7-course dinner given by the Lions, Lady Lions and invited guests, at the Emporia hotel Wednesday, July 17. Roosevelt Continues Mum on Third Term Question

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(AP)—Believing his reputation for eager interest in politics, President Roosevelt today gave a good imitation of a citizen only mildly interested in the democratic national convention and the ensuing presidential campaign.

While still reserving his decision on a third term nomination, he declared flatly yesterday that he would not go to Chicago during the convention—presumably not even to make an acceptance speech, should that problem arise.

At the same time, he indicated his summer schedule would follow a routine of alternate week-ends on the Potomac and in Hyde Park, seemingly ruling out any campaign tours.

As he prepared to start that schedule with a Potomac cruise this week-end, politicians searched his inimitable but tantalizing remarks for eleventh-hour hints of his intentions.

Some interpreted his summer plans to mean that, if nominated, he would make a "front porch" campaign from the white house and Hyde Park, explaining to the voters that the defense emergency demands on his time and energy precluded any speaking tours.

Almost everyone in official circles felt convinced that he would accept a "draft" nomination from the convention.

Henry Ford 2nd Weds After Catholic Baptism

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., July 12.—(AP)—Twenty-year-old Anne Melonell and Henry Ford, 2nd, grandson of the automobile manufacturer, were married today in a pageant-like ceremony of the Roman Catholic church.

The 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Ford was baptized into the Catholic faith the faith of his bride, by Monsignor F. J. Sheen late yesterday in the presence of his parents, his bride-to-be and her parents.

Long before the marriage ceremony, hundreds of villagers had gathered across the street from the little church to view the notable and to applaud such personages as former New York Governor Alfred E. Smith, Henry Ford, Sr., and William S. Knudsen, head of the nation's defense production program.

The bride's 13 brothers and sisters and her ten first cousins, under and aunts formed a cheery family background for her wedding.

Lava was reported hissing into the sea, while a cloudburst deluged thousands of islanders attempting to board rescue ships, including a warship and two steamers.

Food and medical supplies were rushed to the scene, which is a small island in Tokyo bay, 90 miles south of Yokohama.

One village was wholly evacuated. Nearby forests were being submerged under lava ash.
