D. Bridges of Oakland, prior to this week. Captain Bridges has completed his command, however, and new officers have been named for the company. Lewis is guide bearer and platoon guide. Bertor, a shoe maker is guide of the first platoon. Roger Olmscheid is a squad leader. Stanley Esselstrom of Reedsport is a second lieutenant and platoon leader. R. R. Shanklin is second in command of a squad, Daniel Keller is second in command of a squad and Royal Denton is a squad leader. Competition for places is very keen and there is not room for all contenders. Lewis reports. Trainees enrolled as Basics and Reds, the newer recruits, have received lectures, demonstrations and training in citizenship, health, hygiene, care of weapons, field packs, military courtesy, etc., in addition to the regular military training and drills. The advanced students, Blues and Whites, have been given special training with automatic rifles, map reading, leadership, etc. The Douglas county members have been particularly outstanding in athletics. Denton is a member of the league leading basketball team. Bellows is a member of the first place volleyball team. George Quine is out in front of the golfers and Lewis, on Friday, was up to the semi-final round in tennis competition after winning three elimination rounds in straight sets. Men in camp this year, Lewis reports, have more and better equipment than ever before. Much interest is being shown, he reports, in the many medals posted by Douglas county individuals and groups for members of the county trainees, and all are putting forth the greatest efforts to win the awards. |  |  |
