Boone, War Veteran, Laid to Rest in Portland Mr. and Mrs. Dan Boone of this city have returned from Portland, where they attended the funeral of their father, C. C. Boone, veteran of the civil war and of the Black Hawk Indian war, who died at Portland last Saturday at the age of 94. He was the last surviving member of Kit Carson post, G. A. R., of Milton, Ore., where he homesteaded in the pioneer era, building the town's third house on a site now occupied by the railway depot. Officiating at Mr. Boone's funeral services was Chaplain Smith of the veterans' hospital of Portland, and at the graveside in Lincoln Memorial cemetery two negro ministers sang as a token of appreciation to a soldier who aided in the emancipation of their race. Two brothers of Mr. Boone also fought in the Union army, one being killed at the battle of Shiloh.
