

Cleveland Regains Lead From Tigers

Indians Lose Only One Game While Detroit Loses Two; Cincy, Dodgers Both Win.

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians have lost four consecutive games and regained the American league lead, all in one mysterious motion. They succeeded in their present pinnacle by the simple expedient of losing only one game a day while the Detroit Tigers found it possible to drop two.

It took 13 innings for Cleveland to crumble beneath the New York Yankees yesterday, 4-3, and for ten innings in the middle, Bob Feller and Monte Pearson matched two-hit pitching.

Unfortunately, the show was not as smooth as this sounds. Feller loaded the bases in the first inning with a single and two walks, one run, and Feller wild pitched another across. Then, in the second, Feller let a return throw from the catcher roll off his glove and out to short while a runner scored from third.

Pearson made mistakes, too. He fed a home run ball to Heath in the second and in the sixth gave another "gopher" to Trotsky with a man on base. When nobody else could break up the game, Dickey, who hasn't performed the chore in recent history, singled the winning run across in the 13th.

Newsom's Thumb Broken
Meanwhile, Detroit dropped 8-3 and 8-2 at Boston and lost Buck Newsom with a broken thumb on his pitching hand. The right hander, who has won 13 straight, will be out ten days to a month.

The Tigers got three runs in the first inning and no more in the first game as Wilson and Foster combined in a five-hit pitching performance. The Red Soxers cracked open a tie score with five runs in the seventh.

Dover sent Boston out in front in the nightcap with a homer in the first inning, and the Tigers never were able to do anything about it after that.

The Washington Senators whipped the Chicago White Sox, 5-2, with the help of five Chasos errors.

The Cincinnati Reds squeezed past the Boston Bees, 4-3, in a night game to maintain their margin at the front of the National league. It was the 12th triumph for Bertrams.

Hamlin pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 2-1 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, whom he held to three hits.

The six-game winning streak of the St. Louis Cardinals came apart against the Athletics in another night game as the Phillies star obtained a 3-0 shutout.

Seattle Stretches Lead to 10 Games

By the Associated Press

The steam roller from Seattle rumbled over Oakland again last night, 4 to 1 on its seemingly unstoppable route to a second Pacific Coast league baseball flag.

The pennant grab of the second-place Oaks—now ten games behind—became a feeble thing as the relentless Rainiers softened up the opposition with two runs in the first inning.

The Oaks didn't rally until the ninth, when three hits produced a run. By that time Seattle had rung up four more.

Heartbreaker of the week was pitched in Los Angeles, where Dasso of San Francisco held the Scorpions to three hits and fanned seven only to lose his game 3 to 1.

The win went to Prim of the Angels, who gave seven hits and a wild pitch. The blow that counted was a two-run homer by Moore, Angel rightfielder, in the eighth.

The sweet gave Prim his fifth straight conquest over the Seals.

The San Diego Padres didn't even make it interesting for Hollywood. The Stars hit safely 15 times to win their second in a row, 11 to 3. Fleming made the Padres look like anything but the league's heaviest hitting team, letting them down with six safeties.

Freitas of Sacramento plowed Portland under, 6 to 2. The Bees' score was unimpaired. An error by Catcher Orosowski permitted Reich to come to bat. Reich made the most of it, riling a homer that scored the man ahead.

Mostak, Zale Set For Return Bout

By GAYLE FOWLER
SEATTLE, July 18.—(AP)—A couple of middleweights who punch so hard they have trouble getting fights, will take it out on each other under the stars here tomorrow night in a 15-round cloutfest for the 14-state N.B.A. middleweight title.

The sluggers are Al Mostak of Seattle, the titleholder, and Tony Zale of Gary, Ind., challenger.

Managers of both fighters complain their boys have expended so many stinkdusters that the top-notch fancy Dan boxers won't have anything to do with them.

Mostak has had only five fights since winning the crown here on Praddies Steele in 1938. Zale has fought about a dozen times under his present handlers, Sam Plan and Art Wlach of Chicago. They insist that Zale will take the title back to the Midwest and at the same time prove that his 10-round non-title win over Mostak in Chicago last winter was no fluke.

The loss generally has been blamed on Mostak breaking his left hand in the fifth round, but the Plan-Wlach chorus intones that Tony was shellacking the champion prior to the making of the maulie.

Mostak ended a 19-8 favorite, but the edge was considered mere deference to a champion. Otherwise it appeared an even-stevens proposition between Mostak, rated by his supporters the hardest puncher pound for pound, in the ring today, and Zale, who thinks he can outslug the Seattle Sly.

In Union There Is Cash

LOS ANGELES—Three 4000 state employees reported to police they were robbed of $2,000 by two bandits who at first argued and threatened to kill each other over which was to supervise the robbery, then compromised and fled with the loot.

HOP PICKERS ATTENTION

Registration Books Are New Open

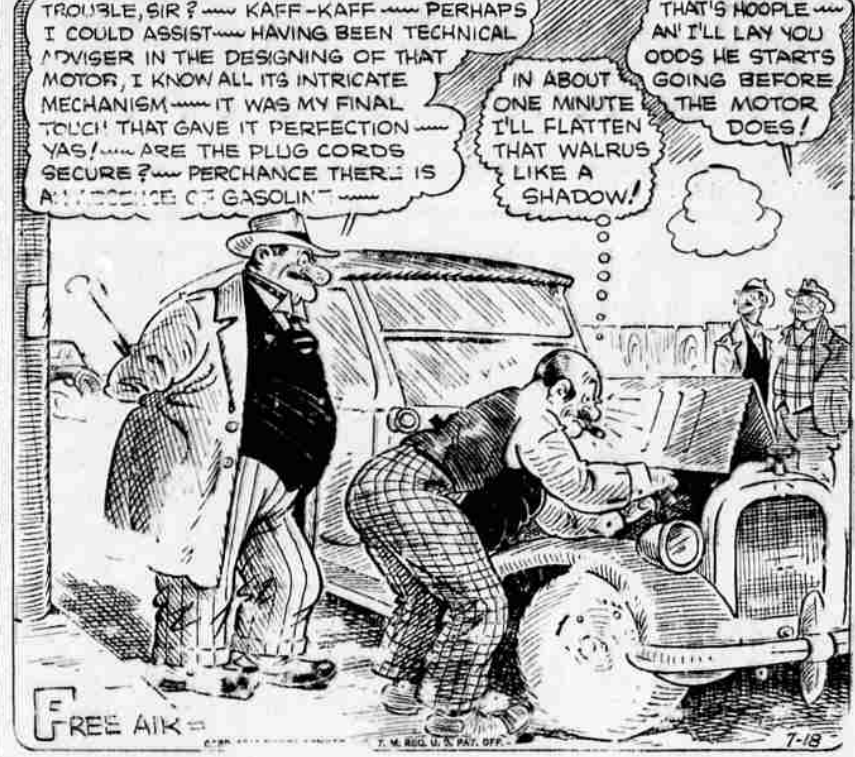

Big Season In Prospect—Extra Fine Hops—Good Accommodations

Season Will Probably Start Between Aug. 8 and 14

Those who register now will be notified when to report and will be given preference in employment.

Address: Hilton Hop Yards Rt. 2, Grants Pass, Ore.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with Major Hoopie

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Name "Dixie" Credited To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A New Orleans bank may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

Henry E. Etnod, Houston engineer, believes that the Citizens Bank of New Orleans was the originator. The bank's 10-cent notes, issued in 1852, were printed half in English and half in French. On one note was the word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the South, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally, Dixieland.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.

Standings

By the Associated Press
American League

Team	W	L	Pct.
Cleveland	48	33	.593
Detroit	47	33	.588
Boston	47	33	.588
New York	42	36	.538
Chicago	36	49	.424
Washington	35	48	.422
Philadelphia	32	47	.405
St. Louis	33	50	.398

National League

Team	W	L	Pct.
Cincinnati	52	24	.684
Brooklyn	49	28	.636
New York	42	33	.560
Chicago	43	41	.512
St. Louis	33	42	.440
Pittsburgh	33	42	.440
Boston	27	46	.370
Philadelphia	26	49	.347

Pacific Coast League

Team	W	L	Pct.
Seattle	71	36	.661
Oakland	64	49	.566
Los Angeles	57	53	.518
San Diego	55	56	.495
Hollywood	53	59	.473
Sacramento	33	68	.329
San Francisco	40	59	.409
Portland	37	65	.362

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.

Armstrong Victor Over Lou Jenkins

Lightweight Champion, Badly Mauls, Unable to Answer Bell at Seventh Round.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—Henry Armstrong isn't the fighting machine he was a year or two ago, but he still is plenty good.

The beating the little negro gave Lightweight Lou Jenkins in a non-title bout here last night was a masterpiece in brutality. Every move of his brown body was calculated to lead to the climax between the sixth and seventh rounds, when Jenkins slumped senseless from his stool.

Few of the 23,000 spectators realized what a terrible going-over the slender Texan had received. Some were surprised when he collapsed, when Referee Donovan called Armstrong to ring center to lift his glove.

But in his dressing room, Jenkins still was so dazed it took him some time to realize how his downfall had come. The battered 135-pound king continued to ask whether he had been counted out. It required all the persuasion of his manager to get him calmed down.

Texas Downed 6 Times
For the first three rounds, Armstrong scarcely laid a glove on his tense, savagely-punching opponent. But for the next three rounds he was noisier, and Jenkins' doom clearly was sealed from the first terrific left hook that caught him on his chin and dumped him to the floor.

In all, Jenkins was down six times; once in the fourth, twice in the fifth, and three more times in the sixth, when he was so weary he could lash out only spasmodically by instinct. The third time he went down in the sixth he wasn't hit, but simply fell from a right he aimed at Armstrong and missed.

When the round ended he stood backed against the ropes, a piteous expression on his bloodied features, his eyes blank. He was led to his corner and placed on his stool, but after a moment he tried to rise and, instead, went to his knees, his head nearly touching the canvas.

After virtually taking the car apart, Withach found the reptile dead in the upholstery inside.

British storm Italian desert fort and find cache of high-grade wine among the ruins. Possibly the only way the Italian motorized divisions remained well-otted.

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Name "Dixie" Credited To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A New Orleans bank may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

Henry E. Etnod, Houston engineer, believes that the Citizens Bank of New Orleans was the originator. The bank's 10-cent notes, issued in 1852, were printed half in English and half in French. On one note was the word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the South, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally, Dixieland.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.

Armstrong Victor Over Lou Jenkins

Lightweight Champion, Badly Mauls, Unable to Answer Bell at Seventh Round.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—Henry Armstrong isn't the fighting machine he was a year or two ago, but he still is plenty good.

The beating the little negro gave Lightweight Lou Jenkins in a non-title bout here last night was a masterpiece in brutality. Every move of his brown body was calculated to lead to the climax between the sixth and seventh rounds, when Jenkins slumped senseless from his stool.

Few of the 23,000 spectators realized what a terrible going-over the slender Texan had received. Some were surprised when he collapsed, when Referee Donovan called Armstrong to ring center to lift his glove.

But in his dressing room, Jenkins still was so dazed it took him some time to realize how his downfall had come. The battered 135-pound king continued to ask whether he had been counted out. It required all the persuasion of his manager to get him calmed down.

Texas Downed 6 Times
For the first three rounds, Armstrong scarcely laid a glove on his tense, savagely-punching opponent. But for the next three rounds he was noisier, and Jenkins' doom clearly was sealed from the first terrific left hook that caught him on his chin and dumped him to the floor.

In all, Jenkins was down six times; once in the fourth, twice in the fifth, and three more times in the sixth, when he was so weary he could lash out only spasmodically by instinct. The third time he went down in the sixth he wasn't hit, but simply fell from a right he aimed at Armstrong and missed.

When the round ended he stood backed against the ropes, a piteous expression on his bloodied features, his eyes blank. He was led to his corner and placed on his stool, but after a moment he tried to rise and, instead, went to his knees, his head nearly touching the canvas.

After virtually taking the car apart, Withach found the reptile dead in the upholstery inside.

British storm Italian desert fort and find cache of high-grade wine among the ruins. Possibly the only way the Italian motorized divisions remained well-otted.

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Name "Dixie" Credited To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A New Orleans bank may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

Henry E. Etnod, Houston engineer, believes that the Citizens Bank of New Orleans was the originator. The bank's 10-cent notes, issued in 1852, were printed half in English and half in French. On one note was the word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the South, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally, Dixieland.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.

Armstrong Victor Over Lou Jenkins

Lightweight Champion, Badly Mauls, Unable to Answer Bell at Seventh Round.

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, July 18.—(AP)—Henry Armstrong isn't the fighting machine he was a year or two ago, but he still is plenty good.

The beating the little negro gave Lightweight Lou Jenkins in a non-title bout here last night was a masterpiece in brutality. Every move of his brown body was calculated to lead to the climax between the sixth and seventh rounds, when Jenkins slumped senseless from his stool.

Few of the 23,000 spectators realized what a terrible going-over the slender Texan had received. Some were surprised when he collapsed, when Referee Donovan called Armstrong to ring center to lift his glove.

But in his dressing room, Jenkins still was so dazed it took him some time to realize how his downfall had come. The battered 135-pound king continued to ask whether he had been counted out. It required all the persuasion of his manager to get him calmed down.

Texas Downed 6 Times
For the first three rounds, Armstrong scarcely laid a glove on his tense, savagely-punching opponent. But for the next three rounds he was noisier, and Jenkins' doom clearly was sealed from the first terrific left hook that caught him on his chin and dumped him to the floor.

In all, Jenkins was down six times; once in the fourth, twice in the fifth, and three more times in the sixth, when he was so weary he could lash out only spasmodically by instinct. The third time he went down in the sixth he wasn't hit, but simply fell from a right he aimed at Armstrong and missed.

When the round ended he stood backed against the ropes, a piteous expression on his bloodied features, his eyes blank. He was led to his corner and placed on his stool, but after a moment he tried to rise and, instead, went to his knees, his head nearly touching the canvas.

After virtually taking the car apart, Withach found the reptile dead in the upholstery inside.

British storm Italian desert fort and find cache of high-grade wine among the ruins. Possibly the only way the Italian motorized divisions remained well-otted.

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Name "Dixie" Credited To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A New Orleans bank may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

Henry E. Etnod, Houston engineer, believes that the Citizens Bank of New Orleans was the originator. The bank's 10-cent notes, issued in 1852, were printed half in English and half in French. On one note was the word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the South, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally, Dixieland.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.

France's History of 600 Years Filled With Wars

BASEL.—(AP)—Of the last 600 years of France's history, 371 have been war years. A Swiss newspaper published the following table:

14th century—43 war years, including such battles as Courtrai, Crecy and Poitiers.

15th—71 war years, including Azincourt, Castillon, Montherie and Gringevate.

16th—85 war years (33 civil wars and 27 big battles, including Pavin and St. Quentin).

17th—69 war years (17 civil wars, 39 major battles).

18th—58 war years (7 civil wars, 93 battles).

19th—45 war years (12 civil wars, 52 battles).

In the 20th century the French have already had the first world war; the Moroccan campaign, and the second world war that crushed their third republic.

Dunham's Lose to North Bend, 4 to 1

Borcher, hurler for the Coos Bay hotel 25th ball team from North Bend, last night defeated Dunham's Transferrers of Roseburg 5 to 1, almost singlehandedly in a game played on Finlay field.

Borcher, with a sizzling fast ball, limited the local team to two hits, both by Domenico, striking out 15 of the local batters.

Morris, Dunham's pitcher, was wild and gave up five walks while being rapped for six hits.

Jakovac, North Bend catcher, collected two hits in four trips to the plate, to take top batting honors for the visitors.

Morris settled down after the shaky start, in which North Bend tallied four runs in the second inning, and held the visitors scoreless until the seventh frame when they added one more score. Roseburg's lone score came in the last inning.

Score: R H E
North Bend 4 10 0 1-5 4 1
Roseburg 0 0 0 1-1 2 2 3
Borcher and Jakovac; Morris and Perry.

Fooler Fooled
OSKALOOSA, Ia.—When Charles Whitely's car ran over a blue racer, he picked up the snake, and thinking to frighten friends riding with him, he threw it on the running board.

The snake came to life, straked across the car's hood and down the ventilator.

After virtually taking the car apart, Withach found the reptile dead in the upholstery inside.

British storm Italian desert fort and find cache of high-grade wine among the ruins. Possibly the only way the Italian motorized divisions remained well-otted.

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Name "Dixie" Credited To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A New Orleans bank may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

Henry E. Etnod, Houston engineer, believes that the Citizens Bank of New Orleans was the originator. The bank's 10-cent notes, issued in 1852, were printed half in English and half in French. On one note was the word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the South, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally, Dixieland.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.

MORGAN'S GROCERY

Specials for Friday and Saturday

PHONE 68

ICE CREAM MIX—Junker in all flavors. 3 Pkgs. 25c

SWEET PICKLES—Pheasant Brand. Pint jar 19c

CHEESE MIX—That delicious new cheese cracker in the cellophane bag. 2 bags 29c

10-lb. bag SUGAR 53c

PINEAPPLE JUICE—Dole's tall 46-oz. can, 2 cans 55c

ORANGES—Medium size, sweet and full of juicy, 2 dozen 29c

PAPER TOWELS—Northern quality, soft and absorbent, 2 rolls 21c

THOMPSON'S CHOCOLATE MALTED MILK—1-lb. can 39c

COMB HONEY—Fancy local, cake 19c

TOMATOES—Fancy hothouse, 3 lbs. 14c

APRICOTS—Fancy Yakima, 15 lb. lugs 43c

Boy Finds 300 Bee Trees in 10 Years

APPOMATTOX, Va.—(AP)—Nineteen-year-old Havilah Babcock, Jr., is nicknamed "Bee" because he has followed a bee-line to more than 300 honey-filled trees in ten years.

The Columbia, S. C., youth who spends his summers here first tried his luck at finding bee trees when he was nine. It was plenty sweet—a live in the second tree he examined.

His favorite method of locating a tree is to wade down a stream, watch bees sucking water from rot wood, and follow them. Sometimes he puts honey on flowers and watches the line of bees. July is the best month to find the trees, he believes. He has located as many as five in a day, but one to three is average. He cuts the tree down and ships the honey to South Carolina for sale. The bees are placed in hives.

Sings? Lots of them, but "Bee" has become immune to swarms. He can't follow the bees in winter, so he pursues his hobby by studying 30,000 to 50,000 bees he keeps in a glass hive.

Name "Dixie" Credited To Pre-War Banknote

HOUSTON, Tex.—(AP)—A New Orleans bank may have been responsible for the term "Dixie," applied to the land below the Mason-Dixon line.

Henry E. Etnod, Houston engineer, believes that the Citizens Bank of New Orleans was the originator. The bank's 10-cent notes, issued in 1852, were printed half in English and half in French. On one note was the word "Ten" and the corresponding French word, "Dix."

Southerners called the bills "Dixies." In those days, states issued their own money. The New Orleans bank was prosperous and its notes circulated widely throughout the South, which came to be known as the land of the "Dixies," and finally, Dixieland.

Peas Predominant

Peas were the only absorbing subject that occupied the attention of the royal French court in 1696. They were in such vogue that discussions by nobles on the pleasures of eating peas became the main topic of conversation and it was even fashionable for noble ladies to eat peas just before going to bed.