POET'S CORNER

BY THE CLOCK

It's an old, old world
By the old, old clock.
If you just sit and listen
To the tick-tick-tock.

When the sun comes up
With a brand new frock,
It won't change the tick
On the tick-tick-tock.

When the sun goes down
At the close of day,
It won't change the clock
As time slips away.

It's an old, old world
By the old, old clock.
If you just sit and listen
To the tick-tick-tock.

WITH A FRIEND

I want some one
To care for me,
Just because
They're a friend;
I want someone's
Prayer for me,
Just because
They're a friend.

I want some one
To dare for me,
Just because
They're a friend;
And when the days
Are hard to bear for me,
I'll be there
With a friend.

—G. M. Leeper.

DAILY DEVOTIONS DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS

What is prayer? Prayer is the offering of our desires to God, through the mediation of Jesus under the influence of the Holy Spirit. Prayer is as necessary to the welfare of our souls as breathing is to the welfare of our bodies. Physical health depends in a large measure upon right breathing. Spiritual health in large measure upon right praying. What then is prayer? First, prayer is communion with God. It is talking to God freely and naturally, and telling Him all that is in our minds and hearts; our failures and our sins, our needs and the needs of others, our sense of gratitude and our sense of His power and wisdom and love. It is also listening to God, hearing what He has to say to us. Second, prayer is a way of showing our love to God. We make our love known in part by speaking to those we love, and by listening attentively when they speak to us. Third, prayer is a means of helping God carry out His will. We may help God in many ways. Prayer is one of these ways. It is the placing of our spiritual power at His disposal for His own purposes. It is putting ourselves at His side. Wouldn't you then bring the world near to God? Then live near Him thyself. Amen.
