MARGUERITE HINKLEY AND DARRELL MUNSON MARRY AT BEAUTIFUL CEREMONY

Miss Ella Marguerite Hinkley, adopted daughter of Mrs. William Martie, of Pasadena, Calif., and Darrell Warren Munson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Munson, of Umpqua, were married at a beautiful ceremony Sunday, August 4, at the Umpqua Community church. Rev. John A. Barney, pastor of the First Christian church of Roseburg, performed the ceremony in the presence of fifty relatives and close friends of the couple at two o'clock in the afternoon.

A gold cloth hanging, centered with a large wall mirror, and flanked with greenery and gladioli formed an attractive setting for the bridal party. Markers of fern and gladioli were arranged at the aisle pews.

Proceeding the ceremony, R. M. Church, of Roseburg, sang, "Be-cause" and "At Dawn's" accompanied by Mrs. John William Robertson, who also played Lohengrin's Processional and at the close of the impressive ring ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Re-cessional.

The bride, who is a very attractive and popular member of the younger set of this city, was beautiful in a floor-length white chiffon wedding gown fashioned along Princess lines. She wore a fingertip tulle veil held in place with a single white carnation. She carried a shower bouquet of white lilies and white gladioli. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles Doerner.

Miss Doris Abeel, as maid of honor, wore a charming frock of old rose fashioned Empire style and carried a bouquet of carnations, asters and ruffled petunias.

Four bridesmaids, Miss Loretta Bailey, in white lace with a blue sash; Miss Jane Munson (sister of the bridegroom) in pink chiffon and white lace; Miss Shirley Holmes in blue satin, and Miss Doris Haines, in arctic-colored tulle, carried old-fashioned nosegays of deep purple, red and white tulips and shell-like chrysanthemums.

Little Maurine Melville Doerner, cousin of the bride, in a yellow tulle dress and carrying a basket of rose petals, acted as flower girl. Leonard Munson acted as best man for his brother and usher included: Donald and Carl Munson, also brothers of the bridegroom, Charles Schultz and Robert Hiltzberger.

Following the church ceremony, an informal reception took place in the attractive garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Higgins. Receiving with the bride party included: Mr. and Mrs. George Munson, parents of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doerner, uncle and aunt of the bride; and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Conn. Other guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cox and son, Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. John William Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. George Felt and daughters, Freda and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hagan, Mrs. John A.
