Debate on Utility Issue To Be Heard Over KRNR
Regular listeners to the American Forum of the Air over station KRNR through the facilities of the Mutual-Don Lee Broadcasting system heard regularly on Sunday afternoons for a full hour beginning at 4 o'clock, will hear Senator Stiles Bridges of New Hampshire and Representative John Rankin of Mississippi argue the topic "Private vs. Public Ownership of Electric Power." Some experts are predicting that the power question may touch off the opening guns of the national political campaign. In the information round-table discussion of the problem, which is the second half feature of the forum program, Senator Bridges and Representative Rankin will each be supported by two additional congressmen—Senator H. Schwartz of Wyoming, who will be on the side of Rankin, Representative Dirksen of Illinois and Representative Bender of Ohio will uphold the anti-public ownership position of Senator Bridges.
