Rosebura, News-Keview

It will be voted on in the senate next week. It's adoption by a small majority vote is predicted, Prompt announcement of the sen-ate action will appear in the NEWS-REVIEW.

VOL. XLV NO. 119 OF ROSEBURG REVIEW

ROSEBURG, OREGON, SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1940.

VOL. XXIXNO. 17 OF THE EVENING NEWS

BRITISH, WAZI PLANES STAGE BIG BAT

In The Day's News

EON TROTSKY, after living b fear of death for years, is IInally murdered. It looks like an international spy job—the kind we read about in the romantic Still, it was a MESSY Job. If these international agents of the foreign secret police are at all like they are pictured by the fiction writers, it is hard to think of them as using a pickax.

STALIN is a revolutionist. Trotsky was a COUNTER-REVO-LUTIONIST. One revolution calls for another. History leaves no doubt of that.

PEACEFUL POLITICAL REVO-LUTIONS, fully sanctioned by law and custom, every few years. Let's keep America that way.

TODAY'S dispatches (this is written on Thursday) quote $ir Archibald Wavell, commander of Britain's Middle East army (Egypt, Syria, etc.) as saying:

"Hitler, thwarted by England's stout defense of her Island kingdom, may emulate Napoleon and turn east in search of easier suc

He may. But if he backs down from the brags he has made about Britain Hitler will display weakness-and that's one thing he can't afford to do.

WHEN Napoleon turned east in was following one of his nutty streaks, and it came near rulning his career in its early stages. He had to sneak back to France, the blockading British fleet in the Mediterranean, after abandoning his eastern army to its fate. His eastern campaign

EGYPT'S war minister says today:

"We will not attack, but IF WE ARE ATTACKED we will fight alongside our ally Britain FOR PROTECTION OF OUR

This sentiment is commended

Reason Seen For Nazi Jibe At Democracy

Senator Gibson Quotes Germ Writer to Show Hitler's Designs on United States; Bill's Passage Foreseen.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 .- (AP) Advocating speedy action, Sena--Advocating speedy action, Senator Gibson (R-Vt.) told his collegues today the senate had taken the same length of time to debate the Surke-Wadsworth compulsory conscription bill that had been required by Hilter to conquer France.

"No wonder that Hilter has the utmost contempt for democratic institutions which are incapable of prompt and wise action in times of emergency" the 29-year-old senator declared in his first formal address since he came to the senate to fill the seat vacated by his father's death June 20.

Gibson spoke as Senator Barkley

The president, in reply, said the resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—only the office—and nothing else," Mr. The resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—only will and must go on as always."

The resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—only will and must go on as always."

The resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—and nothing else," Mr. The resignation will add an other to be office—and nothing else," Mr. The resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—only will and must go on as always."

The resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—and nothing else," Mr. The resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

Gibson took the floor after the start of today's session had been delayed 25 minutes because a fluorum of senators was not present.

"I have heard on this floor," Gibson sald, "many expressions by able members of this senate that they do, not believe there is any possibility of attack on this country. In all courtesy to them, their beliefs amount to nothing. Let us see what the one man who knows believes about the possibility of this attack.

German Writer Quoted

German Writer Quoted

"A short time ago one of Hitler's most latimate friends wrote a book —I refer to the 'Voice of Destruction' by Rauschnig, very recently published. Listen to one short quantion from that book and then let any senator arise and say he doesn't believe that Hitler will pos-

(Continued on page 6)

Burns Kill Actress Who Tried to Rescue Child

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 24.—(AP)— Actress Edna Waldron, 26, died to-day of burns received last Sunday in an unsuccessful attempt to save the life of Catherine Bowman, 3 whose clothes became ignited from whose clothes became garden from a fluid Miss Waldron was using to clean clothes. The child was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bowman of Fort Worth, Tex., who were > weeks old and Walter Weyrauch. Jr., 7, were discovered by the fath-> > their home a short time after the tragedy was discovered, Kincaid

The detective said the mothe was being held for investigation and that charges would be file against her "if she is found sane reported a note found in their ne by the father read:

"They'll find me in the water at Island park. I couldn't die and leave the children. At least they'll never suffer. "(Signed) Lou."

Sugar Beet Firms, Crews Locked in Wage Dispute

SEATTLE. Aug. 24.—(AP)— Churles C. Hughes, international representative of the American Federation of Labor, reported here last night that a deadlock has been reached by sugar beet company

Harry L. Hopkins Resigns as Secretary Of Commerce; Post Offered to Federal Loan Administrator Jesse H. Jones

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)
—President Rooseveit today accepted the resignation of Harry L. Hopkins as secretary of commerce and it was announced he would offer the post to Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator.

Hopkins told the president by letter that he was quitting the cabinet to recover his health. He has been suffering from a stomach allment for nearly two years.

The president, in reply, said the resignation would take effect at a date to be determined later.

"You may resign the office—only since he came to the senate to fill the seat vacated by his father's death June 20.

Gibson spoke as Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the democratic leader, prepared to seek an agreement to limit debate. Senator Austin of Vermont, acting republican leader, told reporters he thought no republican objection would be raised to such a limitation.

Gibson took the floor after the start of today's session had been seed to be spended at the white house.

He headed all the new deal's big relief agencies until he entered the cabinet in late 1938, succeeding

Mother Held As

DAYTON, O., Aug. 24 .- (AP)-

Killer of 2 Tots

Conscription Bill's Delay Scored

Harry L. Hopkins

M'Nary Back Local Guard In Oregon For Unit Returns In Fine Shape Notification

Hardened by 3 Weeks' Training,

Company Will be Enlarged

To War Time Strength to Meet Mobilization Order.

Bronzed and hardened by three

(Continued on page 6)

Bar F. R. From Ballot

Demo Creed Cited to

Vice Presidential Nominee of G. O. P. Predicts Adoption Of Conscription Measure, Deportation of Bridges.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 24.— (AP)—Senator Charles L. McNary returned to his native Oregon to-day for a two days' rest before ac-Bronzed and hardened by three weeks of very intensive battle practice, Co. D., 162nd Infantry, Oregon national guard, returned to Roseburg today ready to launch a recruiting campaign proparatory to a year's active service.

The Roseburg company, according to Cantain B. L. Irying, company day for a two days rest before accepting the republican vice presidential nomination at Salem Tuesday.

The minority leader, Oregon's first national ticket candidate in 80 years, stepped from an airliner here to a welcome by northwest republicans.

He advised interviewers he would leave immediately for Fir Cone, his farm home a few miles from Salem.

McNary predicted the conscription bill "will pass in some form or other with a fair vote."

"There is an amendment by Senator Maloney which will cause much debate," he added. "That would postpone the effective date of the selective service bill until January 1."

"The purpose of the amendment is to give the army an opportunity to make a drive for voluntary enlistment and see what happens before the selective service becomes effective."

Long Session Foreseen
McNary expressed the optinion congress would not adjourn before (Continued on page 6)

Aeronautics Post In Cabinet Urged

Willkie Says Branch Shouldn't Be Subordinated; Seesaw in Malone in the properties of the national guard units to be called for special training under the guard mobilization act passed by cougress, and expects to be ordered to camp late in September.

The company, which now has strength, will be recruited to full wartline strength of 123 men. The company has 14 men in the enlisted reserve to be transferred instructions to start war strength eccipitions to start war strength recruits to make up the required war time strength will be allet of one into training of the proportunity for any young man subject to conscription." Captain from that group take enough recruits to make up the required war time strength of 123 men. The company can build up a large strength will be recruited to full wartline strength of 123 men. The company as 14 men in the enlisted reserve prior to receiving to active service, and will immediately endeavor to build up the enlisted reserve prior to receiving the company and the first of the national guard of fers the first of the national guard offers the first of the calle

Willkie Says Branch Shouldn't Be Subordinated; Seesaw in Relief Rolls Criticized.

NEW YORK. Aug. 24.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willikle advocated to-day that a secretary of aeronautics be added to the president's cabinet because, he said, that branch of the military service is the most important and should not be subordinated.

"It would be much better," the plial for treatment and plans were branch that today is most importable made today for their return ant. My impression is that in our to Los Angeles the first of the air construction and training of "The figures." Wilkie said,

"show an increase of about $9,000 in the relief rolls during July, 1940, which corresponds with a rise in each previous election year since the Roosevelt administration has been in office."
(It was assorted in a statement by Howard O. Hunter, acting WPA commissioner, that WPA employment in the months preceding

Fire Destroys California Bldg. At Exposition

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Fire swept through the huge California building of the Golden Gate international exposition today, and it appeared the structure would be leveled by the flames.

Thirty minutes after the fire broke out most of the roof crashed in.

broke out most of the roof crashed in.

Fire-fighting equipment from San Francisco raced over the bay bridge to reinforce the department on Treasure Island, exposition grounds, in San Francisco bay.

A brisk wind kept the fire from nearby buildings.

The U. S. army Treasure Island company, police and guards were believed to have removed all art works and most movable equipment from the big frame and plaster hall.

An hour after the first alarm was

The U. S. army Treasure Island company, police and guards were believed to have removed all art works and most movable equipment from the big frame and plaster hall.

An hour after the first alarm was turned in, walls were still standing, but one appeared in constant danger of giving away. New flames kept springing up despite the tremendous volume of water being poured onto the hall from scores of hose lines.

An hour after the first alarm was turned in, walls were still standing, but one appeared in constant danger of giving away. New flames kept springing up despite the tremendous volume of water being poured onto the hall from scores of hose lines.

but one appeared in constant danger of giving away. New flames kept springing up despite the tremendous volume of water being noured onto the hall from scores of hose lines.

Creosote Hurled Into
Greyhound Bus; Two Hurt

REDWOOD CITY. Calif., Aug. 24.—(AP)—A bus passenger, Johan Iverson, 40, of San Francisco, was treated at a hospital here today for serious burns received last night when two bottles of creosote were hurled through a window of a Pacific Greyhound bus. He received deep burns on the face and hands, and a cut on the forehead.

Another passenger, Mrs. Grace Vysc, of Burlingame, was burned by the antiseptic but did not receive hospitalization.

Four persons were injured the previous night when a missile was hurled through the windshield of a bus north of San Fablo.

Similar violence against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

A strike was declared against buses were recorded previously.

The Germans were challenged the ratders and were challenged the city. British fightists challenged the capital seal of them. One British plane was acknowledged lost.

The Germans were challenged the capital seal of the city supplies to have challenged the ratders and were challenged the ratders and were challenged the city say again on of British figures of the core of the c a national labor relations board or-der to bargain with that union. The company has contended it has a contract with an American Federa-tion of Labor union, members of which are operating the buses.

Rumanian-Hungarian Conference Collapses

TAUNTON, Mass., Aug. 24.— (AP)—The Massachusetts supreme (By the Associated Press) court had before it today a New Bedford attorney's petition that President Rossevel's name be bar-red from the ballot in this state on the grounds that an "unwritten law" against third terms was "about to be violated."

The retition contained, the fol-The Rumanan-Hungarian conterence over Transpivania collapsed at Turnu-Severni today and Hungary called up her reservists and assigned soldiers to guard the national railways.

tional railways.

Rumania army reserve officers had already been summoned.

The conference ended when the Rumanian delegates failed to give a reply satisfactory to Hungary which demanded two thirds of the 35,000-square mile province which Rumania has held since the world war. Rumania offered to exchange "about to be violated."
The petition contained the fol-lowing quotation said to have been taken from the democratic plat-form of 1896:
"We declared it to be an unwritno man shall be eligible for a third war. Rumania offered to exchange term of the presidential office."

Thirteen Of Raiders Shot Down, Claim

London Escapes Damage Front Fortunate: Big Guns Again Engage in Channel Duel.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—(AP)— Hundreds of German hombers and fighter planes swarmed over south-ern England today in mass attacks

(Continued on page B)

Counties to Get More From O-C Land Revenue

PORTLAND, Aug. 24.-AP)-W. PORTLAND, Aug. 21.
A. Horning, chief forester of the Oregon and California revested lands administration, said today $500,000 may be faid to 18 western and southern Oregon counties from two federally-owned bodies of land.

d land.

The counties received $510,608 income in iteu of taxes in the 1939 ifiscal period and sales for the fiscal year just ended indicate the amount will be above last year's a figure, Horning said.

He added that $1,376,000 was received this year for 600,000,000 in board feet of timber from revested Oregon and California railroad grant lands and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon road grant parcels.

Mothers Register Opposition to Conscription

Shrouded in crepe, the nine mothers pictured above, all with sons of army age and implacable foes of compulsory military service, hold a "death watch" over the United States senate as it debates the conscription bill. The mothers, reading left to right, are: Mrs. Anna Hahn, Detroit, Mich.: Mrs. H. Anna Curren, Ohio; Mrs. Amanda Markey, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. H. Berwick, Cleveland, Ohio: Mrs. C. C. Snider, Ohio; Mrs. Mary Clossey, Ohio; Mrs. Della Fahey, Ohio; Mrs. Sue Braun, Ohio, and Mrs. A. L. Collins,

A GROUP of boys engaged in a peanut race at Sutherlin yesterday—one of several athletic events at fording liveliness to the Central Douglas Community fair now in progress there.

It takes lots of knee-action, stamina and patience to manipulate a goober down a home-stretch of pavement. But these boys seemed to have what it takes.

Times were when a defeated randidate for public office was known to push a peanut down the road by means of his nose, but I haven't seen it done lately. Perhaps the politicians' noses were out, aithough its altogether more out, aithough its altogether more likely the roads were out first.

Elmer Russell won the event. I think he's the young fellow in the picture above who is examining his home from work last night.

Directed by a note, members of the family found the mother, Mrs. Lucille Weyrauch, wandering "it a dazed condition," in a park near their home a short time after the company, Great Western Sugar company, Holly Sugar corporation and the Utah and Idaho Sugar com-pany. The last named firm operates in Washington, Idaho, Utah, Mon-tana, Oregon and other states.

2nd Crash Hits One Place; Two Hurt

A 30-year-old mother was guarded in a hospital here today, Detective investigation into the drowning of her two small children "under mys terious circumstances" in a bath-

Albert Foster Davis, 22, Port-land, and Clarence Lewis Shary, 34, Los Angeles, were taken into cus-today by state police last night, Dr-man, of Seattle, were killed in a motor crash Aug. 4.

According to the report of the accident by Mr. Abrahams, the car was crowded off the payement by an oncoming machine, struck a soft shoulder and could not be pulled back onto the rondway in time to avoid striking a cencrete culvert wall. The car was almost totally demolished.

Mr. Abrahams is a traveling salesman for a large New York manufacturing concern, maintaining his district headquarters at Los Angeles.

Would not be facing her present crisis.

Relief Juggling Cited

Before taking up the aviation question. Willike replied to a WPA statement saying that WPA employment decreased by about 100, 400 persons from June to July. Veaterday Willkie nascred that the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and Los Angeles.

Today Willkie replied to a WPA statement saying that WPA employment decreased by about 100, 400 persons from June to July. Veaterday Willkie nascred that the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in July and proposed that Attorney and the rolls showed a 90,000 main in Jul

Unlicensed Driving and Vagrancy Charged to Pair

Mrs, Bernard J. Abrahams, 9699
Wilshire boulevard, Reverly Hills, Calif., saffered a broken leg, discocated arm, and numerous cuts and bruises, and Mr. Abrahams received scalp wounds and body bruises when their car was wrecked Friday afternoon on the Pacific highway a half mise south of Yoncalla.

Roth were brought to Mercy hospital for treatment and plans were motor crash Aug. 4, representative of the American Federation of Labor, reported here last night that a deadlock bas been reached by sugar beet company employers and workers over wages in seven western states. He said 30,000 employes of four companies are affected, all of them affliated with the sugar workers' council.

He said the companies affected with the sugar workers' council.

He said the companies affected with the sugar workers' council.

He said the companies affected with the sugar workers' council.

They were the American Crystal Sugar company, Holly Sugar corporation and the Utah and Idaho Sugar company. The last named firm operates in Washington, Idaho, Utah, Montana, Oregon and other states.

Los Angeles, were taken into custoday by state police last night. Dry is being charred with vagaracy and of with vagaracy and shary with operating a motor vehicle without having procured a driver's license. Sergeant Pau Morgan reported that the men had a normalition in the Yorkville (German) sector of New York City operation of the car was checked. They were to court at Oral today for arraign ment on the charges filed against them.