Every state, county and city official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it showing when and how each dollar is spent. This is a fundamental principle of democratic government.

NEXT Tuesday Oregon's Senator Charles L. McNary will be formally notified that he is the nominee of the republican party for the office of vice-president of the United States. This "notification" is a ceremony that is a custom of long standing. There will be no news to McNary in the procedure. The senator received his actual notification while the Philadelphia convention was in progress—and gave his consent to the placing of his name in nomination. You may recall that Senator McNary was unanimously nominated, having been awarded all but a few scattering votes on the first count.

Those who heard National Committeeman Ralph Cake speak at the republican rally Thursday evening know the story of the republican vice-presidential nomination. The Oregon senator did not seek the nomination. More than that he did not want it. His personal preference was to retire at the end of his present senatorial term and get some needed rest at his farm home near Salem. But out of loyalty to the republican members of the senate and for the benefit of his state which in 90 years had not had a candidate of such importance, he accepted.

So Salem, the home city of Senator McNary, where for many years he has maintained law offices and near which is his beautiful home—Salem is agog. Tuesday will be the day of days. Elaborate preparations have been made. The notification will take place at the fair grounds and ample room for spectators and parking room for their cars has been provided. The big event will take place at 4 p. m. and will, of course, be nationally broadcast.

Douglas county republicans are planning to attend the Salem notification affair en masse. At least such plans were on foot this morning and are doubtless completed, or nearly so, as you read these lines. Can enough tickets (150) be sold to command the services of a special train—a special train for Douglas county republicans direct to the fair grounds and directly home after the notification? That question is uppermost right now. This column will do its part in helping the situation by explaining that the special train round-trip fare to Salem and back is quite low, the accommodations as to getting to the place where the affair will be held are said to be better than may be achieved by driving a private auto. Those who want to sign up for the special (providing 150) are asked to leave their names either at the Roseburg chamber of commerce office or with Harry Pargeter at the Douglas Abstract company of Ice.

to those Americans who are trying to rush us into an offensive alliance with Britain.

In connection with these efforts to rush us into war, this Associated Press dispatch from London will be found interesting: "Official British reluctance to comment on the proposal for a British-American alliance may be explained by the presence of public opinion in England that a nonbelligerent United States is MORE VALUABLE TO BRITAIN than an America at war. In the latter event, these persons reason, the United States would have to use most of her planes and munitions for strengthening her own Panama and Atlantic defenses instead of letting Britain use them.

"This group (opposing American entrance into the war) is probably FAR MORE POWERFUL than the smaller and more vocal body, including a sprinkling of AMERICAN EXPATRIATES, who are calling for immediate American intervention against Germany."

THAT is to say: A smaller and noisier group in England, including American EXPATRIATES, wants to force America into war, but a larger and more powerful group of Englishmen believes America will be more helpful by staying out of war.

Nazi Escapee From Canada Captured

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Robert Hodgson, Minnesota border patrol man stationed at Virginia, Minn., said today he had taken into custody a man he identified as a suspected German fugitive from a Canadian internment camp. Hodgson said the man gave the name of Manuel Fischer, 29, a native of Germany and citizen of Spain, who was captured by the English in Belgium and sent to Canada as a war prisoner. The officer believed Fischer had fled from the Canadian internment camp at Red Rock, Ont., about 200 miles north of Port Arthur, Ont. Hodgson said the man carried two crudely drawn maps, apparently self-made, which showed "a border town between Lake Superior and Emerson, Minn., on the Manitoba line, and another border town between Winnipeg and Vancouver, B.C. The fugitive was believed to have crossed the border here and hatched-hiked to Virginia 50 miles southeast of here. He was being held here for Canadian authorities.

Youthful Fugitives From Arizona Prison Caught

FLORENCE, Ariz., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Warden Gene Shute and prison bloodhounds caught today with two youthful convicts who early this morning bound Mrs. R. P. Anderson, wife of the prison auditor and steward, and fled in the Anderson automobile, armed with a revolver. The youths were captured without resistance in the mountains two miles north of Oldberg, Ariz., and not more than 25 miles from the prison. The convicts were William Cates, 29, serving 12 to 18 years for kidnapping for robbery, and Phil Schumacher, 19, serving five years for robbery. Both had been in prison less than a year. Schumacher worked in the Anderson home, Cates on a farm nearby.

Excise Tax Aiding Wild Life Program

SEATTLE, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Sportsmen were given the good word today that firearms and ammunition sales, furnishing the money, are financing good game management programs all over the country. Forty-four states have already complied with the Pittman-Robertson act under which federal funds are available to them. Albert M. Day of the fish and wildlife service told the Western Association of Fish and Game Commissioners, and 43 states have active programs under way. The money comes from the federal excise tax on arms and ammunition. "Last year, 237 projects were approved for 43 states, involving an expenditure of $2,082,755," he said. "Fifty-one were for the acquisition of lands and waters, at an estimated cost of $487,000; 161 were for development of areas to improve wildlife conditions, at a cost of $214,000; and 85 provided for investigations into problems of wildlife management, at a cost of $881,000." The law provides for federal of wildlife restoration projects approval of 75 per cent of the cost provided by the service. He said Louisiana had recently passed the necessary assent legislation and that Montana, Nevada, Florida and Georgia were the only ineligible states at the present time.

Manager Has to Buy Adopted Son

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—(AP)—Clark (The Old Fox) Griffith, whose baseball travels are legend, found himself involved today in one of the strangest deals of his long career—he had to buy his adopted son. "I've just bought Sherrod Robertson," he announced, "because I've changed my mind about him. I've decided he's going to be a ball player after all." "Sherrod Robertson?" "Yes," said the president of the Washington Senators, "I'm bringing him up from Charlotte. He needs a lot of seasoning, of course, but I believe he's got it." "Isn't Sherrod one of—" a newsmen continued. "Yes," Griffith confessed, "he's one of the children I adopted back when he was almost a baby." It was an odd case. Clark Griffith having to buy a ball player whom he practically raised from the cradle. "Well, you see," said the Old Fox, "I knew he was a good kid ball player, but I just never figured out here look at his record." Young Robertson is a brother of Mrs. Joe Cronin, wife of the manager of the Boston Red Sox. He's been playing shortstop for Charlotte in the Piedmont league. "The records show the 21-year-old Robertson has driven in 85 runs to be among the league leaders in this department. He's hit 23 home runs, eight triples and 18 doubles. He's socked Piedmont league pitching for a total of 218 bases. The Old Fox didn't say so—but you got the impression he felt it would have been something he'd never lived down if he let some other big league team buy a member of his family.

Small World

LANCASTER, Pa.—It was indeed a small world that separated Mrs. John Wagner and her sister, Miss Norma Heffly. They lost track of each other 18 years ago after adoption by different families. Reunited through a chance meeting arranged by a mutual friend, impressed by their resemblance, the sisters discovered they lived only 24 miles apart.

Bowling Season Opening Planned

Five More Leagues, One of Women, in Prospect for Roseburg Tournaments.

The bowling season in Roseburg will be officially opened the week of September 3, it was announced today, with three and possibly more men's leagues and one women's league scheduled for the season's competition. Organization of the City league was completed this week with Cecil Black being elected president; Pete Sherman, vice-president and Deb Day, secretary-treasurer. Ray Tannlund, Bill Davis and "Doc" McQueen were named on the rules committee. The City league will be composed of teams sponsored by Dunham's Transfer, Coppo, Ellis club, Sandy's place, Texaco, Umpqua Cleaners, Roseburg Alleys and Ute Bros. It is planned to put a new ruling into effect which will set up minimum team averages in order that more uniform play will result. At least two more men's leagues are expected to be formed. Meetings for the Industrial and Commercial leagues are to be held within the next few days. Floyd Baughman, manager of the Roseburg Alleys, is taking registrations at the present time for the teams to compose the two leagues. Ten men will start competition the week of September 9, while the women's league will start the following week. Play is being started two weeks early in order to get in the required quota of league games necessary to establish handicaps for the state meet. As the state tournament will be held in Marshfield the last of November, many Roseburg players doubtless will participate, and are, therefore, anxious to play their required league games prior to the state meet. A matched game was played Wednesday night between the Umpqua Cleaners and Texaco Chiefs, with the Cleaners winning two out of three games by the narrow margin of 68 pins. Cecil Black carried off individual honors with a high score of 236 and high series of 635.

Dunham's Win 2nd Half League Title

Deciding Softball Game Taken From Butchers, 6-3; Oaks Beat Hub's in Swiftest.

The Dunham Transfer Dunhamites pounded across five runs in the first two frames to down Boucek's Butchers, 6-3, to take the second half title in the final game of the City Softball league regular season. In the second game, the Oakland Gobbler's managed to nose out Hub's Indians, 14-10, in a free-hitting affair. The Dunhamites tallied two runs in the first frame when Henry walked, advanced to second on a passed ball, stole third and F. Scherner's walk and stolen base, with both men scoring on P. Laurance's long outfield fly. Three more runners reached pay dirt in the second inning when Goodman singled, Peterson walked and all hands were safe when Glenz dropped Rice's fly. Domenico then drove out a long fly to score a runner and Henry tripled to clear the bases. Boucek's retaliated with a 3-run outburst in the third inning as Boucek singled, Meyers walked, Radigan singled through the box and Miles doubled. Dunham's final tally came in the fifth inning when F. Scherner homered into right center field. Bruton cracked out two hits in the fifth to lead the Butchers in hitting. Henry, F. Scherner, and Peterson each collected one hit in two trips to lead the winners. Laurance gave up seven hits, struck out three and issued two passes. Creason, losing hurler, allowed but six bloopers, walked three and struck out four. In the nightcap, the Oakland Gobbler's pounded Campbell for eight runs in the second inning, and a 14-10 win. The Gobbler's had a merry time, as did the Indians, when they changed positions every inning. A sparkling triple play, engineered by Jim Stearns, Gobbler second sacker, worked the highest of the evening. With none away, Heinz on second and Mills on first, Rico connected what appeared to be a sure hit, but Stearns made a beautiful catch, doubled Heinz off second and nipped Mills at first with a lightning throw to complete the play. Burt, with two for three, and "Big Bill" Mills, with three for five, led the 15-hit attack on Whorthen, winning chucker. Cellars, with three for five and B. Stearns with two for four, led the Gobbler attack. Summary: R H E Boucek's—002 000 0—5 7 3 Dunham's—230 010 x—6 6 0 Batteries: Creason and Meyers; Laurance and Goodman. Seattle Loses To Hollywood, 7 to 5

(By the Associated Press) The Hollywood Stars were a bit upish today, and with good reason. They'd handed the top-rung Seattle Rainiers a 7 to 5 defeat that was even worse than it sounded. But the Pacific coast league leaders didn't appear worried—even though all three runner-up teams of Oakland, Los Angeles and San Diego turned in victories. The Rainiers still led the circuit by more than 100 points. Seattle was credited with only one earned run off Mustakis, former Boston Red Sox right-hander, who kept his nine hits well scattered. He was injured sliding for the plate in the eighth and Osborne finished. Los Angeles shut out Sacramento 5 to 0 behind the three-hit pitching of Prim. Not until the sixth,

Leaders in Majors In Losing Streak

Cleveland and Cincinnati Fail to Win With Regularity That Put Them at Tropic. (Associated Press Sports Writer) It's no longer a case of how far will Cleveland and Cincinnati win by. For the last two weeks, the Indians and the Reds have clung to anything but a couple of clubs going after the jackpot. The Reds have dropped nine of 15 and the Tribe has barely stayed over the .500 mark for that stretch. The Indians called on Feller today in the finale against the Yankees. Their two prize left-handers weren't of any more use in the stadium during the past two days than your dollar straw hat in a rain-storm. After Miller was given a thorough going over Thursday, the Yankees went to work on Al Smith yesterday and posted a 5-3 decision behind the six-hit elbowing and hitting of Sundra. It cut the Tribe's pace setting edge to four games over the second-place Detroit Tigers, whose game with the Boston Red Sox was rained out. Beas Stung Cincinnati. Meantime, the Reds' old jinx—Boston—turned up with their old stuff in Cincinnati and knocked off the National league pace-setters 7-2 behind steady twirling by Tobin and some fancy flailing. Brooklyn's second-place Dodgers also lost, blowing a 5-4 verdict to Chicago Cubs. The Cardinals whipped the Phillies 5-2 on Bowman's six-hit hurling to run their winning string to eight straight. This boosted the Cards into undisputed possession of third place, since the New York Giants lost a 13-10 merry-go-round to the Pittsburgh Pirates. For a time, in Washington, it looked like a senate filibuster was on, as the Senators and Chicago White Sox went in and out of getting nowhere. But in the 13th frame, Bloodworth stopped into the first pitch Clint Burchard served up after replacing Dietrich and knocked it into the outfield for a single sending in the deciding run in a 3-2 win for the Nats. George Caster tossed three hitless relief innings to save a 6-1 victory for the Athletics over the St. Louis Browns at Philadelphia.
