MARJORIE WRIGHT IS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

DAYS CREEK, Aug. 27.—Miss Josephine and Miss Maxine Wright were hostesses Wednesday evening at a most charming surprise party honoring their sister, Miss Marjorie, on her birthday anniversary. Gorgeous bouquets of gladioli and snapdragons formed an effective color note about the rooms. Games were played and group singing was enjoyed during the evening. Delicious refreshments were served to the honor guest, Miss Marjorie, and to Miss Betty Lou Westman of Glendale, Miss Mildred Spore, Miss Winnie Rainville, Lester and Norval Ferguson, Maurice and Marshall Matthews, Kenneth Helms, John Wright, Roy Boyd, Melvin Welch, Lyle Sporer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wright and the hostesses, Miss Josephine and Miss Maxine Wright.

EAGLES AUXILIARY HOLDS MEETING

The Eagles auxiliary met Tuesday evening at the hall to make plans for selling cakes and pies at the Labor day salmon bake to be held at Idlewild park August 31 and September 1-2. The ladies have been asked to bring either cakes or pies to the park to be sold on Monday, Sept. 2.

S. U. LADIES CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

DAYS CREEK, Aug. 27.—The South Umpqua Ladies club was most graciously entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fritz Snyder with Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Pete Ulan, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Jean Welch and Mrs. Maggie Snyder being hostesses.

During the business meeting at which the president, Mrs. John Ferguson presided it was decided to can tomatoes for the school lunches between the first and fifteenth of September. The work is to be done in the school kitchen with Mrs. Ray Spencer in charge. Anyone having jars which they will lend for this project are requested to leave them either at the Days Creek store or with a member of the canning committee. If this is impossible they are requested to get in touch with one of the committee so that the jars may be picked up. The members of the committee are Mrs. T. L. Weaver, Mrs. Carl Sumner, Mrs. Wright, Mrs. John Clark, Mrs. R. A. Moore, Mrs. Joe Rainville and Mrs. Oliver Bratton.

A tentative date was chosen for the carnival which the club has been planning. If there are no conflicting activities it will set for December 6.

It was also decided that rather than take any action as a club concerning forming a Red Cross sewing unit at present the individuals would make needed articles as they could.

Mrs. Dora Badger drew the club prize for August. The club has been invited to hold their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Delbert Poole, Mrs. T. L. Weaver, Mrs. J. D. Wright, Mrs. Ed Pence, Mrs. Dora Badger, Mrs. Wade Worthington and Mrs. Ray Spencer being assisting hostesses. Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Wade Worthington and daughter, Beverly and son, Junior, Mrs. Gordon Clark and daughter, Sharon, Mrs. Ivan Welch, Mrs. J. D. Wright, Mrs. J. R. Montgomery and daughter, Marda and son, Jackie, Mrs. Ray Spencer, Mrs. John Ferguson, Mrs. Dora Badger, Mrs. Carl M. Hill and daughters, Caroline and Patty, Mrs. Ray Wright, Mrs. Maggie Snyder, Miss Mildred Spore, Miss Hazel and Miss Alice Mae Welch and Mrs. Fritz Snyder and daughter, Barbara and son, Richard.

RELIEF REBEKAH LODGE HAS MEETING

RIDDLE, Aug. 27.—Relief Rebekah lodge, No. 185, met in regular session Wednesday evening with Sally Lawrence, N. G., and Bertha Blundell, acting vice-grand, in the chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Knutner, who recently purchased the Red and White store, were visitors and expect to change their membership to this lodge in the near future. Plans were discussed for renewing the contest which proved successful during the last term. Under the good of the order, Helena Riddle, who recently completed a term as noble grand, was presented a lovely gift, a console set of fruit dish and candlesticks in Fosteria glass. Sister Worthington presented the gift and stated it was from members of the local lodge and members of the Canyonville lodge. After the business session the members repaired to the dining room where Effie Ledgerwood and Flora Dean were guests of honor at the monthly birthday party. Bertha Blundell gave a very interesting account of her recent trip to Yellowstone park while the party was seated at table.

MR. AND MRS. STEARNS ENTERTAIN BRIDGE CLUB

SUTHERLIN, Aug. 27.—The Sutherlin Bridge club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Stearns at Oakland Wednesday evening, August 21. Contract bridge was enjoyed with Mrs. Harry Stearns winning high for ladies, and Lawrence Robertson high for men. Brittain Slack won the ladies traveling prize and Vern Holgate won the traveling prize for the gentlemen.

The rooms were beautiful with bouquets of gladioli, and a delicious salad lunch was served at mid-night to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Holgate, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jordan, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Stearns.
