Funds for GOP Up To Only One Body

Only one organization is authorized to solicit contributions to the republican campaign fund, H. O. Pargeter, chairman of the Douglas county republican central committee, stated here today.

Under a new plan of organization and contrary to past years, only one contribution will be requested this year and this contribution should be made only to the republican finance committee, Mr. Pargeter states.

The republican finance committee of Oregon this year is representing all authorized organizations for the financing of county, state and national elections, Mr. Pargeter states.

Mr. Pargeter reports that he has appointed a finance committee for Douglas county to function as a part of the state organization. Dr. B. R. Shoemaker is chairman and other members include W. H. Gerretsen, F. L. Crittenden, Mrs. Ed Marks and Mrs. C. E. Banning.

A number of independent organizations, chain letters and other appeals have appeared in Douglas county," Mr. Pargeter said, "but according to Joe Martin, chairman of the republican national committee, none of these groups are authorized to make any appeal for funds. The republican finance committee is the only authorized
