Every state, county and city official or board that handles public money should publish at regular intervals an accounting of it showing where and how each dollar is spent.

CAN it be only a year ago that the world's peace machinery thudded to complete breakdown, and war spread like an ugly blot over the face of Europe?

Yes, only a year. On Sept. 1, 1939, Hitler's legions crossed the border into Poland. On the 3d Britain and France declared war, the effort to make Hitler draw back having proved useless.

So short a time ago, and yet so long. We almost forget the spark that set it off. It was the argument over Danzig and the Polish corridor, a not insoluble problem which the slightest good will would have peacefully settled.

Within a month Poland lay prostrate. Within two months the United States had repeated the embargo on arms that had been designed to keep war aloof.

The same 12 months have seen the United States turn resolutely to arming itself and to building a water-tight dike of defense around the New World.

Perhaps never in history have such tremendous changes come in a single year.

Defense against dynamic forces must be dynamic. We have liberty to preserve, and a free way of life and living; so we must be strong. We have a future to build, the gateways to a brave new world to open; so we must be wise.

Editorials on News (Continued from page 1) do about it? He'll BACK DOWN, probably. So far Stalin has been merely the sneaking coyote gathering up the leavings from the kills made by others.

Errol Flynn Has Fine Role in "The Sea Hawk"

The handsome and dynamic Errol Flynn was never better than in the role of the swashbuckling, reckless and romantic Geoffrey Thorpe, daring privateer in the days of the Spanish galleons.

The darling buccaneer, who plundered the Spanish main to enrich the coffers of the almost bankrupt "merrie England," becomes the Robin Hood of the seas in a thrilling saga of spell-binding adventure and tender love.

Wind Keeps Schedule on Double Barn Destruction

LINCOLN, Neb.—A southwest wind blew down B. J. Tarning's barn. He rebuilt it. Just as he was about to start shingling, a southwest wind blew it down again—a month later to the hour.

FLYING CO-ED

By MARY KINNAVEY MOORE

CAST OF CHARACTERS ANNE NORRIS—wealthy college student, looking for thrills, enrolls in CAA flying course.

YESTERDAY: Submitting to her guardian's wishes, Anne tells Tony she cannot see him until after school closes. On their last date, Tony takes her to a road-house, hauled by school authorities. There is a shooting. A dice-game girl helps Anne escape before police arrive.

CHAPTER VII In a back room of the Villa Aloha, one of the gunmen grabbed Charlie by the arm.

That red-haired girl, who was she? "Where is she?" "I don't know. Let me go—"

With a half-startled oath, his companion followed him out through a back doorway as the police entered at the front.

Where was Tony? Why had he deserted her? She could only assume that his one thought had been to save himself. The idea that he might have suddenly seized on the shooting as an unexpected opportunity for letting Anne become involved in scandal never occurred to her.

American League Contest Tightens

Yankees Crowd Tigers Out of Second Place as End of Season Nears.

By JUDSON BAILEY (Associated Press Sports Writer) The American league is heading for its wildest finish in modern history. The big Labor day blow off, which incidentally brought out 264,000—173,000 in American league parks—just about raised everybody's temperature to the boiling point.

Both the Cleveland Indians and Detroit Tigers dropped double-headers while the New York Yankees split with the Philadelphia Athletics before 69,940 fans at Yankee stadium.

The world champions thus moved into second place by a slender percentage margin, 53.3 to 52.5, over the Detroit Tigers, while the lead of the Indians over each now is 3 1/2 games.

The National league, which usually stages the big September show, already has virtually awarded the championship to the Cincinnati Reds for another term and the fact that all the first division clubs in that circuit divided the spoils yesterday didn't change matters.

Auker Wins Shutout. Cleveland's collapse was another scalp to the credit of the St. Louis Browns, who have made life miserable for every club in the first division. The unpredictable Vernon Kennedy held the Indians to seven hits in the opener and rapped out three himself to lead the Browns to a 2-1 triumph.

The Tigers met the same fate at Chicago, smashing to pieces on the hulling of Bill Dietrich and John Rigney. Jolly Solters broke up the first game with a single in the eighth for a 2-1 decision.

Byron Nelson Wins Golf Championship

Hershey, Pa., Sept. 3.—(AP)—Byron Nelson of Toledo, O., today joined the select handful of professional golfers who have won both the medal and the match play championships of the United States and once again the triumph was at the expense of Sam Snead, the luckless.

Nelson, open king in 1939, won the P. G. A. title for the first time yesterday. He defeated Snead by one hole in a rousing 36-hole final that wound up in a blaze of brilliant shots.

Angels Advance In Coast League Race

By the Associated Press The Oakland Acolns, slipping fast since Los Angeles nosed them out of the second place spot they had held nearly all season, found themselves only a game and a half ahead of fourth place today after dropping another Coast league double-header to the Angels.

Los Angeles slipped the Oaks on their home lot, 8-4 and 5-3, to take the nine-game series, seven games to two, and creep up one game on the league-leading Seattle Rainiers whose doubleheader with San Diego was rained out at the northern city.

The Angeles piled up a four-run lead in the first two innings of the opener on five hits of Henry Plessen and never were headed. Jess Flores and Joe Berry held the Oaks to four hits in the finale, and Flores drove in the winning runs brought in Paul Carpenter and Salvador Hernandez.

Hollywood split a Labor day twin bill with San Francisco at the film city, pushing across seven runs in the fifth for an 11-5 win in the opener, but dropping the second 3-0. Sam Gibson gave up only four hits in salvaging the nightcap for the Seals—his 12th victory of the year and sixth shut-out.

At Portland, the last place Beavers and Sacramento divided honors, the visitors taking the opener, 6-3, with home runs by Chet Wiercok, Eddie Lake and Jim Grill, and Portland the nightcap, 4-3.

Spent Day in Canyonville—Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Bell, of this city, spent Labor day in Canyonville visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Willis.

Posilipo Winner At Fair Handicap

SALEM, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Posilipo, with Jockey Glen Dye up, made a strong finish to capture the Labor day handicap at the state fairgrounds yesterday, opening day of the fair's six-day horse racing meet.

Posilipo crossed the tape just ahead of Pallation for the $300 purse and paid $7.20 to win, $3.20 to place and $3.50 to show.

Abc Turst, winner of the sixth race, paid the day's biggest price—$27.50 to win.

First race, one-mile harness—Carey Wooden (Thien), $4.00; $2.60; $2.40; Lias Brewer (F. Chadbourne), $4.99; $3.00; Pointer Wooden (Davis), $3.49. Time: 2:10.

Second race, five furlongs—Leo Toy (Conley), $4.20, $2.50, $2.60; Holly Effort (Dillea), $2.60, $2.80; Lady Winsome 11 (H. Maghin), $1.16. Time: 1:03.3.

Third race, one-mile harness—Clare Wooden (Thien), $3.00, $2.70, $2.10; Direct Wooden (G. Ramp), $2.70, $2.10; Lias Brewer (F. Chadbourne), $2.10. Time: 2:12.2.

Fourth race, five furlongs—Callie B. (Conley), $2.40, $2.70, $2.50; Nell Snealing (Josephson), $6.20, $4.50; Too Lazy (Fimintwa), $3.50. Quinela $35.50. Time 1:03.
