Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK, Oct. 28.—Mrs. J. P. Brill is quite ill again, and is in a hospital in Seattle, where the illness have been living for some time, according to word received here.

Word has been received from Clarence Wimer of Medford, that Mrs. Wimer, who has been in a Portland hospital for some time, is getting along very satisfactorily at present.

Carl, Jr. and Stuart Starbuck went to Portland Thursday for their final examination for entrance into the U. S. navy. They expect to be sent at once to San Diego for training.

Mrs. Clara Bailey, who received a bad fall about three weeks ago, crippling herself, has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. H. Dyer, of Medford, where she took osteopathic treatments for two weeks. She is much improved although still lame.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kusler of Frozen creek are enjoying a fine trip in northern Washington, where they are sightseeing and visiting with relatives and friends.

The Townsend club is still very active here. The next meeting will be Sunday, October 27, 2 p. m., to commemorate the first great mass meeting held by Dr. Townsend.

Charlie McGee has been having his house worked over by W. B. Bishop, Bull-his and other modernizing features have been added. A. D. Elliott of Tazewell visited the Michaels farm last week to see how things were progressing. He reports that his father-in-law, J. J. Michaels, is feeling much better than he was during the summer.

Sutherlin

SUTHERLIN, Oct. 28.—The boy scout committee of the Sutherlin fire department held a business meeting at the Avis building Thursday night. Robert Hill, scout executive of Eugene and Harold Hight, local scout master, were also present and plans for the troop were discussed. Committee members attending were John Musgrave, Maurice Vogelpohl and Frank Holgate.

The Sutherlin grade school will present a Halloween program, "The Wishing Leaf," Monday evening, October 28 at 8 p. m., at the community hall. There will be no admission charge and every one is invited.

Dr. L. A. Dunlap returned here Tuesday from a several weeks visit with relatives and friends in Portland.

Principal Clifford Horner is attending a school principals' meeting in Salem the end of this week. Ernest Archambault has returned to his home from the Veterans' hospital in Portland where he has been for several weeks.

Due to a teacher's institute in Eugene the latter part of next week there will be only three days of school this next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shafer of Oakland, Calif., arrived Wednesday for a few days visit at the Henry Barge home. Mrs. Shafer is a sister of Henry Barge and she and her husband are former Sutherlin valley residents.

Carl Burr is moving his jewelry store from the hotel building to the rooms formerly occupied by the beauty shop in the barber shop. Jack Culver, Jr., returned home Thursday from eastern Oregon where he was successful in bagging a 200-pound mule deer.

The sophomore class of the high school sponsored a masquerade party Friday evening, October 25 at the gymnasium. The hall was decorated in orange and black in keeping with the Halloween spirit. A scavenger hunt was much enjoyed, followed by games. Prizes were given to the winners.

Mrs. Lulu C. Correll and Mrs. Reba Hartley attended the meeting of the Eastern Star lodge at Glendale Tuesday night and report a very enjoyable evening.

Wilbur

WILBUR, Oct. 25.—Mrs. T. E. Grace returned to her home here Friday after visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Wilson in Corvallis the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Deardoff of Oakland were visiting relatives in Wilbur Sunday. They just returned from a trip to Salem and Portland where they were looking after business interests.

Mrs. Everett Vincent and daughter, Mrs. Harry Vincent, new Doris Baird and Mrs. R. L. Irving, left Saturday for Camp Murray, Wash., to visit over the weekend. Mrs. Vincent plans to remain there to make her home.

Mrs. W. E. Russell went to Oakland Monday to spend the day with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ruth Russell and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon La Raut and daughters, Wilma and Vernice, and son, Jimmy, spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKay.

The fun carnival sponsored by the high school Friday evening at the Wilbur gym was quite a social and financial success.

Wilbur high school will begin its athletic season Friday, October 25, the visitors are from Elkhorn high. Both a basketball and also volleyball game are scheduled. G. W. Ayers will coach the boys' game this year. The girls have as their new coach, Miss Mary Ristig.

Frank Parker is quite sick at his home here. Dr. Walcott is the attending physician.

Mrs. Virgil Smith and Mrs. Ralph Smith went to Marshfield Saturday to claim claims and visit the former's daughter, Mrs. LeRoy Smith for a few days.

Miss Beattie M. Ristig, of Los Angeles and formerly of Portland, spent a few days here with her niece Miss Mary M. Ristig. Before going on to Portland to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ristig of that city, she will return to her California home within a fortnight.

Ed Russell has accepted work at Whipple mill at Drain, and went to work Tuesday.

The Wilbur high school wishes to thank the many Roseburg merchants, who so kindly donated gifts for the annual carnival.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ayres and family spent the week-end visiting with friends at Triangle lake.

Miss Virginia Smith returned from Marshfield Monday where she spent the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Roy Smith.

Mr. Hatcher and family, who have lived on the Fitch place now owned by Mrs. W. E. Russell, have moved to Roseburg where Mr. Hatcher is employed.
