

"SNOOPY? YOU BET I AM AND IT'S SAVING ME PLENTY ON GRAND FRESH COFFEE"

1. Puzzled by Airway's amazingly low price, I edged closer when I heard my grocer saying: "Yes, Airway's one of those smooth tallow-rich blends the world loves best."

2. "See these plump brown beans? They are hours fresh! Delivered straight to my store from nearby roasting ovens. No delays. No need for a fancy package. That explains Airway's low price!"

3. I couldn't resist. I tried Airway on the roaster's money-back guarantee. "Not a bean's ground till you buy," my grocer continued. "That's why you get Airway at peak goodness."

Lewis Expected to Quit as CIO Head

Pledge to Resign if Roosevelt Won to be Carried Out if Followers' Plea Ignored.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—(AP)—John L. Lewis watched silently today the mounting toll of Roosevelt votes which sounded the call he had set for himself to exit as president of the CIO.

Lewis, who sharply criticized the Roosevelt administration two weeks ago, and called for the election of Wendell Willkie, appeared in a cheerful mood as he met newspapermen at his office.

The CIO leader, who was one of the outstanding new deal supporters four years ago, said he would not make any public comment on the results of yesterday's election.

Lewis staked his CIO leadership on a Roosevelt defeat when he issued his dramatic call to followers two weeks ago for a Willkie triumph. Closest associates said no one would be able to dissuade the veteran labor leader from carrying through with his avowed intention to quit as CIO head.

A new deal backer in 1936, Lewis announced in his Willkie appeal that if a third term were given to President Roosevelt, he would regard it as a vote of "no confidence" in his judgment and retire from his office when the CIO meets in convention Nov. 18.

Despite this, however, a movement got under way at the first sign of a Roosevelt victory to have Lewis reconsider and continue in his present No. 1 CIO post.

If that move fails, Philip Murray of Pittsburgh, a CIO vice president, probably would be the choice to carry on the leadership of an organization which split into two political camps as soon as Lewis came out for Willkie.

The CIO presidency paid Lewis no salary. The mine union presidency, which he also holds, carries a salary of $25,000 a year.

World conditions have prompted the Red Cross to set up the two new programs since last roll call. Mr. Clark said more than 50,000 medical technologists have been circulated for the formation of a reserve corps being organized at the request of the U. S. army medical corps. In addition, experimental studies are being made for a national "blood bank" which would furnish blood plasma to the U. S. military in time of emergency.

The later program, Mr. Clark said, was being run as a parallel project to a program of furnishing blood plasma to the British Red Cross for war victims.

"At the same time, the Red Cross must be prepared to continue the work of its other services," Mr. Clark said. Nearly 380,000 persons received certificates in first aid and 94,000 in life saving during the past year. Indications point to an even greater training program for 1941.

Mr. Clark pointed out that last year more than 100,000 persons, victims of 102 disasters in the United States, received Red Cross relief in being rescued, clothed, housed, fed and aided in rehabilitation.

"Red Cross nursing service enjoyed one of its busiest years since the program was established," Mr. Clark said. "In the 12 months preceding June 30, Red Cross nurses made more than 1,000,000 visits in behalf of the sick in urban and isolated rural areas."

Red Cross Pleads For Needed Boost In Membership

The American Red Cross, confronted with increased demands of the current national defense program and growing needs for widening its regular domestic operations, on November 11 will embark on its greatest membership roll call since the days of the first world war, J. E. Clark, city chairman of the Douglas county Red Cross chapter, declared today.

Red Cross officials here have set a goal of 1,000 memberships as their share in strengthening the services of the organization locally and nationally.

Appealing for greater membership, Mr. Clark declared the success of the national enrollment of members will hinge upon the individual success of chapters in attaining their membership goals. He urged every person who can to become a Red Cross member to insure the Douglas county chapter meeting its share.

"Following the outset of 'total war' last May," Mr. Clark said, "the American Red Cross asked the public for a fund of $20,000,000 to widen its war relief in Europe. This amount has been raised and oversubscribed, enabling the Red Cross to ship thousands of tons of food, clothing and medical supplies to the war zone areas where it has been most needed."

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHAS. A. EDWARDS.

The other day a notable memorial service was held in honor of Football Coach Knute Rockne. Some twenty years ago a student was winning football games for Notre Dame, but in 1920 he lost a heroic fight against disease. In his deathbed he said to Rockne, "Some day, Knute, when the going is not easy, when the odds are against us, ask a Notre Dame team to win a game for me." Eight years later Rockne's team faced almost certain defeat in a game against Army. But before the game, Rockne got his team into a huddle and told them the student's request. Then he added, "Men, this is the game. Go out and win for Gipp." And to the surprise of most people the Notre Dame boys won. Every time we bow to worship we should be inspired by the memory of our Master who gave His life in the warfare against sin. And He depends upon us to win for Him. But ours is more than a memory for the Christian. Confidence lies in the Savior's promise. "Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world." We kneel, how weak, we rise, how full of power. Why, therefore, should we do ourselves this wrong, or others, that we are not always strong? May we cultivate the presence of Christ. Amen.

Ventriloquist, Harpist Billed at Roseburg School

Alva Brower, one of the best known ventriloquists of the country, will appear Friday, Nov. 8, with his popular entertainment group at Roseburg Junior high school. The program is one of several public entertainments being sponsored during the season by the junior high school student body. Mr. Brower has become famous because of his ability to use three distinct voices in his presentation, and his three dummies, Jerry, Oscar and Lucy, make up a family which is expected to delight both adults and children.

Assisting Mr. Brower in his variety show is P. Avis McDonald, Hollywood, vibraphonist. Mr. McDonald has been used by many of the principal picture studios and has broadcast over the various radio networks on many occasions.

Campaign Material? FAIRMONT, Minn.—When election officials started a fire in the stove at Galena town hall they found it wouldn't draw because the chimney was plugged. Before they got through, help who cleaned out the flue extracted a dog and four cats, all dead. Officials remarked that it was only a few days since Halloween.

Armistice Day, Nov. 11

In times like these, when the thoughts of the nation are turned to our national debt, the management feels that it is only fitting and proper that we should pause in our daily activities to pay tribute to those who have given so freely in patriotic sacrifice in our past periods of national emergency.
