

Questionnaires Go To Registrants In Draft Lottery

Questionnaires have been mailed by the Douglas county selective service board to the first 125 registrants drawn in the recent conscription lottery, according to R. L. Preston, secretary. The questionnaires will be sent out to every man registered in the county in the order in which their serial numbers were drawn. The questionnaires are being mailed at the rate of about 100 daily.

through the selective service board, if the request for additional time is deemed reasonable. Roseburg attorneys have been organized into a board headed by Attorney Dexter Rice and are giving free assistance in the filling out of questionnaires. Attorneys working in pairs are taking turns in the work and are located at the city hall in Roseburg where any registrant can apply for assistance in preparing the required report.
