POET'S CORNER

UNITE

Now that the battle is over,
Let's shake hands and be friendly again.
Let's forget the harsh words that were spoken
During the heated campaign.

It's only an old-fashioned custom
To bluster to rage and to storm—
It's been done at every election
Since our American nation was born.

Let's get behind those we elected;
Give them our loyal support;
Build up the nation's defenses—
Show the rest of the world we're a sport.

Show them by our devotion,
To country, to flag and to home;
That united we stand for our country,
And it's best to leave us alone.

We need have no fear of the future,
If together we strive for the right,
God walks with those who are righteous
And will strengthen our arms for the fight.

—R. A. Redell,
532 South Pine street, Roseburg, Oregon.
