THANKSGIVING DANCE TO BE BRILLIANT AFFAIR OF THURSDAY EVENING

The largest and most interesting social event of the month will be the B. P. W. C. fourteenth annual Thanksgiving ball at nine-thirty o'clock Thursday evening, November 22, at the armory, to which the public has been cordially invited to enjoy.

Miss Ina Laubach and Miss Ina Farnsworth are general chairmen of the affair, which promises to be one of the most interesting and enjoyable in many years. Miss Margaret Johnson is acting as chairman of the decorations. Billy Black's orchestra will furnish the music for the affair.

SADIE HAWKINS PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The Riddle high school, keeping in thought that its still leap year, had a Sadie Hawkins day the school. While this was almost a week late, the students went at it just as enthusiastically as if it had been on the 2nd, the real Sadie Hawkins day. The object, as is well known is for a girl to catch a boy, but instead of marrying the girl, the boy only had to take her to the party, given for that purpose, Friday night. The students dressed as characters in Lili Abner and after playing a number of games, refreshments were served, followed by a volleyball game.

AH-NEAH-NIKA GROUP ENJOYS PARTY

The Ah-Neah-Nika Camp Fire group enjoyed a party Wednesday night at the home of the guardian, Mrs. Mabel Johnson. Refreshments were served to Shirley Parker, Priscilla Wade, Nancy McClintock, Yvonne Hlatt, Betty Smith, Virginia Maek, Alleen Slattery, Ruth Collett, Jean Wiley, Lois Lilly, Florence Denton, Betty Crocker and Patricia Sheehy. The group voted to donate $2 for the Thanksgiving basket fund.

EVERGREEN GRANGE HAS MEETING ON FRIDAY

Evergreen grange met at the hall Friday night for the regular business meeting and annual election of officers. Short agricultural reports were given by Ab Rice and Lyle Marsters. It was voted to continue the grange nest hunt during the next year. Evergreen grange leads up to the present time in the county-wide grange pest hunt contest with a lead of 223,200 points over the nearest contestant. The next meeting of the home economics club will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Pickens in Roseburg. The annual bazaar and cooked food sale will be held in Roseburg on November 30th. A letter was read from E. A. Britton, county club agent, offering to show some moving pictures at the grange. Arrangements as to date, etc., were left to the lecturer, Mrs. John Lander, Jr., who will confer with Mr. Britton. These pictures will be shown at an open meeting of the grange with the people of the community and especially the children of the various schools in the community invited to attend. It was decided to change the meeting night of the grange from Friday to Monday, beginning after the first of the year.

The following new officers were elected: master, Mrs. H. L. Lander; overseer, John Cabot; lecturer, Mrs. John Lander, Jr.; steward, John Lander, Sr.; assistant steward, John Lander, Jr.; lady assistant, Mrs. John Cabot; chaplain, Mrs. Mollie Moffett; treasurer, Mrs. Susie Winston; secretary, Miss Doris Lander; gate-keeper, Lyle Marsters; Ceres, Mrs. George Thomas; Pomona, Mrs. Lyle Marsters; Flora, Mrs. John Lander, Sr.; executive committee, Ab Rice, George Thomas and Henry Lander. Installation of officers will be held at the first meeting in December. Camas Valley and Roseburg granges will be invited to join with Evergreen in the installation of their officers. Mrs. Alice Goff installing officer, will be asked to conduct the ceremony.

FRESHMAN CLASS GIVES PARTY FRIDAY

CAMAS VALLEY, Nov. 18.—The freshman class gave a party for the high school Friday night at the schoolhouse. Games were played during the evening and the freshman class served chili and crackers after the games. A large group of the high school students were present for the evening and Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stanz assisted with entertainment and refreshments.

CHRISTMAS SHIP COMING HERE!

They're on their way—Santa Claus and Joey the Clown with the annual Shell Christmas Show, traveling in the good ship Lollypop and bringing presents for all good boys and girls. Pictures show the Lollypop en route here and Joey trying to imitate one of the mystifying magic tricks that will be performed by the ship's Captain. All performances are free—everybody is invited to attend.

The good ship Lollypop, bringing a cargo of treasure and a group of distinguished passengers, will dock in Roseburg Wednesday, November 29.

Santa Claus heads the passenger list. With him are Joey the Clown, favorite of all children, and the Lollypop's captain who has collected new tricks of magic from all parts of the world to show his friends here. "The Shell Christmas show has been touring the west for ten years, spreading holiday spirit and bringing gifts to the youngsters. It was said by Shell's local manager, J. L. Pounds.

At the conclusion of the magic demonstration, Santa Claus will mysteriously appear and distribute a unique gift and a lollypop to every good boy and girl. Local performances of the show will be given at the Shell station at Stephens and Oak streets. Time will be 7 o'clock Wednesday evening. Mr. Pounds said.

LUNCHEON IS SERVED AT SCHOOL TUESDAY

CAMAS VALLEY, Nov. 18.—The Parent-Teachers club furnished lunch and dinner at the schoolhouse on election day with Mrs. Madge Standley and Mrs. Nellie Siegel in charge and Mrs. G. R. Moore assisting. Several dollars were realized from the sale of food part of which was spent for two new kettles to be used for preparing hot school lunches later in the fall.

A pie social was held in October to raise money for hot lunches which netted thirteen dollars. This with donations from parents and patrons of the district will go toward the first month or two of the hot lunch project. The P.T.C. has one hundred forty-three quarts of tomatoes canned by donated work in the early fall. Hot lunches will start this year in December and will be carried on during at least January and February. The teachers last year all agreed that the students eating hot lunches gained weight and did better in their school work during that time.
