RHS Basketeers Drilling Hard For 2 Opening Games

By "HAP" APPLEGATE
Coach Jim Watts, head basketball coach at Roseburg senior high school, is putting his squad through stiff practice sessions daily this sweek-end. The Indians journey to Drain Friday night and will play Roosevelt high of Portland at the local gymnasium Saturday night.
Although the squad has not been definitely selected, some of the facts concerning eight of the players who will doubtless be members of the first string are as follows:

Jim Finlay

Jim Finlay
Senior, aged 17, weight 155
pounds, 6 feet tall. A two-year letterman. For the past two seasons high point man for the Indians.
Has been on the district All-Star team for two years. Very capable defensive man.

Senior, aged 18, weight 182
pounds, 63" tall. Two year letterman. Outstanding offensive player and aggressive backboard man. Best center in the district last year, although he was ill during the tournament. Will be switched to forward position this season.

Senior, aged 17, weight 200
pounds, 67" tall. One year letterman. Was all second team center in district two years ago but was ineligible last season. A good scoring threat and backboard man. Bill Goodlow pounds, 62" tall. One year letterman. Capable reserve forward last year. Has plenty of aggressiveness. Will play as guard this season.
Senior, Aged 17, weight 164

Ed Hughes
Junior, aged 17, weight 165 pounds, 622" tall. One year letterman. Played as a regular during the greater part of last year. Is expected to be a starter this year. Is rapidly developing into an acc scoring threat.

John Ness
Junior, aged 16, weight 154 Earl Wiard

Is rapidly developing into an accessoring threat.

John Ness

Junior, ased 16, weight 154, pounds, 5717 tall. First season, Good defensive player and scoring threat. Is developing rapidly and its scheduled for plenty of action this season.

Neil Schrimpf

Sophomore, ased 15, weight 147 pounds, 5717 tall. Played for Junior high last season. Is rapidly developing into one of most accurate basket shots on the squad. Apt to break into starting lineup before the year is out.

Larry Anderson

Sonior, ased 17, weight 215 pounds, 6° tall. Played as reserve last year. Has shown great ability under basket and will be used particularly against rough opponents.
